

GRAIN HARVEST BEGINS; CORN IN NEED OF RAIN

Barley is being cut this week in many sections of the county and wheat will fall before binders and combines next week but farmers are more concerned now about the prospects for the corn crop in the fall.

Many county cornfields haven't had a soaking since they were planted and the hot weather that has accompanied the drought for much of this month has caused corn leaves to curl and farmers fear that fatal "firing" of the corn fields will begin if adequate rains do not come soon.

Creeks are low, some of them have stopped running and parched sections of their stream beds look more like late July or August of a dry summer. Wells, too, are showing the effects of the dry weather.

Wheat Looks "Pretty Good"

Littleton residents Wednesday were asked to conserve water. That town gets its municipal supply from wells.

Most farmers say the wheat crop—on acreages reduced by federal regulations—will be "pretty good" in Adams County this year. It is likely that much of the wheat will be cut next week and most of the remainder during the week of the Fourth of July.

In spite of the fact that both April and May were short of rain, early crops of hay in most parts of the county were good but more rain will be needed soon to provide second or third cuttings in the hay fields.

Peas Hard Hit

The early commercial pea crop was described as being considerably "short" of normal because of the dry weather "and there just won't be any late peas at all if we don't get rain soon."

Tomatoes are said to be not yet showing critical need for rain but fields of sweet corn being grown for canning factories are in dire need of soaking rains.

Rain in Gettysburg so far this month totals only 0.95 inches while normal for the month is 3.78 inches. The current drought saw June begin with a 3.33-inch shortage built since January 1.

Given Permit To Build Gas Station

A building permit has been issued by Burgess William G. Weaver to Charles H. Huber Jr. to construct a gasoline service station at the northeast corner of Lincoln Ave. and Carlisle St. The permit was the highest issued by the borough, $25, which permits the builder to erect a station from $12,500 up.

Recently, representatives of a large refining company have been making inquiries as to the valuation, assessment and ownership of the Weigle property, formerly the John Blocher property, at the southeast corner of the same intersection, across Carlisle St. from Huber Hall. However, no deed has been filed for the property and no building permit has been issued.

MACK REALTY TENANTS ARE ORDERED OUT

The next six weeks will see a general exodus of all tenants from the upper floors of the McPherson and Columbia buildings, owned by the Mack Realty Company of McKeesport in the southern half of the west side of the first block of Baltimore St.

All eight tenants, including a number of elderly persons and one fraternal order, have received eviction notices from Mary Ramer Eberhart, local representative of the owners. The notices set July 31 as the date by which the rooms must be vacated.

Mrs. Eberhart referred inquiries about the reason for the move and what plans the owners may have for the old buildings to the offices of the realty company in McKeesport.

"Precautionary Measure"

At McKeesport today, The Gettysburg Times was told the eviction orders were issued because the apartments in the two buildings in question are regarded as "not good living quarters." The removals were ordered, a spokesman for the owner said "as a precautionary move in the interest of the old folk who live there."

No building plans are presently involved, it was added.

O. of L. A. Involved

The Battlefield Council of the Order of Independent Americans occupies rooms in the Columbia building as successor organization to the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, said to have opened lodge rooms there when the building was completed in 1898. Lodge officers said no new quarters have yet been found but action may be taken in the next week or so on the matter.

Most of the tenants in the two buildings have yet to find new living quarters.

Business places in first floor rooms of the two structures are unaffected by the new orders.

There was speculation today that the evictions may be a forerunner to changes similar to those made in adjoining section of the block when the Murphy store was enlarged and modernized and upper stories of two buildings were removed.

New Postage Stamp Offered On Friday

A new issue of "ordinary three-cent postage" stamps will go on sale at the Gettysburg post office Friday, Postmaster Lawrence E. Oyler announced today. They were sold first today at the Albany, N. Y., office in conjunction with the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the First American Congress when Benjamin Franklin presented and had adopted his first plan for federal union.

The new stamps are printed in purple, come in sheets of 100 and bear a reproduction of the Statue of Liberty with a halo and the words "In God We Trust" arranged in a semi-circle above the head of the statue.

"Pop" Hughes, Bicycle Repair Wizard, Is Idol Of Small Fry Who Turn To Him In Time Of Distress

Chances are if the voting age was ever lowered sufficiently, kindly George A. "Pop" Hughes, bicycle and general repair shop owner, could choose his office and win by a landslide if it depended on the backing of a legion of Gettysburg small fry.

It is by no mere happenstance that the white-haired, 73-year-old retired railroad worker, who resides at 100 Baltimore St., is regarded by the children of this community as a combination Thomas Edison and Santa Claus.

His shop, operated "for the fun of it," is a five-and-dime Mecca where broken-down bicycles and other lifeless mechanical devices receive a new lease on life.

COUNTY GOES "OVER THE TOP" IN HEART DRIVE

Adams County exceeded its $2,600 quota in the 1954 heart campaign by 12½ per cent. Rev. Charles E. Held, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Harney, executive vice president and campaign director of the Adams County Heart Association, announced that $2,918.81 was contributed this year as compared with $2,403 in 1953.

In submitting the report of the campaign to the association president, C. A. Willis, Rev. Mr. Held pointed out that the largest source was contributions from individuals which aggregated $1,071. Industries were second with $545; civic and fraternal organizations third with $364.75. Plastic hearts accounted for $440.21 in collections; business placed contributed $345 and churches contributed $162.85.

Expresses Appreciation

President Willis, commenting on the results of the drive, expressed his appreciation to the Adams Countians for the support.

"It is of interest that only $371.75 was expended in conducting the campaign and that Adams County contributed 1,162.52 to the American Heart Association for research that is leading American scientists and medical authorities to victory over heart disease which continues to be America's greatest killer."

"On behalf of the association, I again express sincere appreciation and thanks to Adams Countians for their generous support in this important work and for again exceeding the quota set for the county by our association. I want also to congratulate and express sincere appreciation to Rev. Mr. Held for his outstanding work in the conduct of the campaign."

Guatemalan War Chiefly On Airwaves; No Big Battle Near

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—The Guatemalan War entered its seventh day today with most of the fighting still apparently raging over the propaganda airwaves and in the diplomatic arena. There was no indication of a major battle shaping up anywhere.

The anti-Communist "liberation army" seemingly was bogged down by lack of transport just north of the Honduran border. The Jacobo Arbenz Guzman still had not made an appearance in force in the field. There were these developments:

1. Seven persons were reported wounded, three gravely, when Honduran police fired on a Tegucigalpa crowd watching a pro-Arbenz, anti-U.S. demonstration by students in the Honduran capital last night. Later thousands of the students and townspeople gathered to parade through the city.

2. Honduras charged a Guatemalan airplane bombed a Honduran airfield Tuesday. The Tegucigalpa government said it is protesting to the United Nations and to the Organization of American States. U. N. sources in New York said last night the international organization had not yet received the protest, the third filed in connection with the fighting. Guatemala has entered two, one of which still is pending.

3. Guatemala promptly denied the bombing charge. Guatemalan Foreign Minister Guillermo Toriello said in a statement "not a single Guatemalan plane has flown toward the Honduran frontier."

Quote Luis Quintanilla

4. The OAS's Inter-American Peace Commission, meeting in Washington, referred to Guatemala a proposal by Honduras and Nicaragua that the five-nation body make an on-the-spot investigation of charges by the Arbenz government that the two neighboring republics supported "aggression" against Guatemala. Commission Chairman Luis Quintanilla of Mexico said he hoped the Guatemalan government would accept this "generous offer" promptly.

5. Nicaragua formally denied it was guilty of any aggression. In a cable to the U. N., Nicaraguan Foreign Minister Oscar Sevilla Saca said the charges were intended to conceal the Communist affiliations of the Arbenz government.

6. A Guatemalan broadcast said President Arbenz has assured U.S. Ambassador John Peurifoy in Guatemala City the safety of U. S. citizens living in that country would be assured. There had been reports earlier that the embassy was planning to airlift out the nearly 1,200 Americans there.

The progress of the rival armies was clouded by a welter of conflicting reports, many of them obvious propaganda claims. One rebel broadcast claimed the insurgent forces led by Col. Carlos Castillo Armas were moving on Guatemala City from three sides. A government broadcast said the rebels had been repulsed and were fleeing toward Honduras.

HEATING MEN HEAR J. ESTEP ON WEDNESDAY

Eighty-two dealer and distributor representatives from Adams, York, and Franklin Counties, and Harrisburg and Philadelphia met Thursday night in the offices of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., 15 York St., to discuss plumbing, heating, and dealer sales.

Julian Estep, manager of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. in Gettysburg and Greencastle, conducted the meeting. He told the gathering that over 900 heating permits had been released in this area in the last 60 days. Representatives were advised to warn patrons contemplating heating installations, that permits should be sought as quickly as possible to avoid last minute bottlenecks "when cold weather arrives."

Estep pointed out that heating applications are being approved at present without delay and that the possibility of "restrictions on the number of new installations seems remote. You should see to it," Estep said, "that permits are secured for customers as quickly as possible, so that no 'bottlenecks' occur."

Air Conditioning

General plumbing procedures and the necessity of proper installation for maximum efficiency to the consumer were also discussed in detail.

The discussion of air conditioning was led by Mr. Thomas, Pittsburgh representative of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. He pointed out that gas users can obtain both heating and air conditioning from one utility. He indicated that the trend in the larger cities is toward this combination. "In Adams County, as elsewhere," he said, "air conditioning is still in its infancy, but there are marks of tremendous growth."

Through the courtesy of The Gettysburg Times a tape recording of a sales speech by Arthur H. Motley, president of Parade Publications Inc., was played.

A buffet followed the business meeting.

Of the eighty-two representatives, 65 were dealer representatives and 17 represented distributors. Major door prizes were won by the following: L. U. Collins, Gettysburg; H. J. Becker, Abbottstown; W. B. Hawbaker, Greencastle; Jack Kendall, Chambersburg; S. M. Metcalfe, Gettysburg; Stanley Keefe, Gettysburg; M. C. Brinkley, State Line; Clarence Talbot, Hanover; and H. L. Boys To Make Kites At High School Shop

Jack Corbin, who is in charge of arts and crafts under the Recreation Park, has asked all boys from 10 years and up to report Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the south gate of the Gettysburg High School athletic field from where they will go to the school shop to make kites.

Last week rings and bracelets were made by both groups of boys, 7-10, and 10 years and up. During the current week the groups have been making lanyards. Next week leather work will be provided.

SEEK SALESMAN WITH LIMP AND "FAKE" PRODUCT

State police here are seeking more information about a "man with a limp" who is selling a patented cleaner at $8 and $9 a gallon which police describe as an "absolute fake."

Police have one report that the man made a sale near Gettysburg last Friday and are checking a report that a similar product was being peddled Wednesday in the vicinity of Abbottstown.

The cleaner, which has an emulsified appearance and is green and pink in a bottle with a yellow label, is now in state police laboratories for chemical analysis. It is supposed to "work wonders" on varnished surfaces and produced a high gloss finish. The product is offered under the name of "Hospital Kleen" and is said to be manufactured by a E. G. Blosser, Carlisle R. 4.

Recall Linoleum Case

In addition to the cleaner, the police also are having tested a sample of a white abrasive powder which the salesman hands to his customers.

Police issued a warning against the fake cleaner and asked countians who have been visited by the salesman to report the fact to state police headquarters here. "No cleaner is worth $8 a gallon in the first place," one officer pointed out.

Police are following the same procedure as they did in the spring when they were notified that men were selling cheap linoleum as in-laid remnants. Newspaper warnings brought reports of a half dozen cases of fraud and led to the arrest and sentencing of the pair in courts here and in Franklin County.

JACOBS GIVES INSTRUCTIONS FOR PARADE HERE

Instructions to individuals and organizations participating in the observance of the 91st anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg parade next Thursday evening were announced by Donald Jacobs, general parade chairman, this morning.

The parade will be held at 6:30 p.m. and will move promptly at 7 o'clock. Officers of each unit are to report to the parade division areas by 6 o'clock.

All units participating in the parade must register prior to 6:30 p.m. on July 1, and each of the marching entries must display some means of identification for the benefit of the judges.

In the event of inclement weather the parade will be held the following day, Friday, July 2, through the same hours.

All units of the parade will "keep on the move" because of its length and of the events to follow. Spot drills and halting for "maneuvers" by marching units will not be permitted.

Must Maintain Distance

Jacobs said that the distance to be maintained between units "should be approximately 20 paces." Judges will consider, among other points, a 120-136 per minute forward movement step of the marching units.

The time intervals between the divisions of the parade will be two minutes. Marshals of each division will maintain the interval. To date, four divisions are listed in the order of march.

Other instructions provide that no sirens be sounded throughout the parade; that "safety first" be "the order of the day," and that upon dismissal streets be cleared as soon as care and safety permit.

All motor units, except fire vehicles, desiring to remain at the carnival will turn right into Franklin St. from Breckenridge St. Foot units will proceed straight ahead and break up as designated by fire police.

SAY OLD STONE BRIDGE IS GOOD FOR 100 YEARS

The Adams County Commissioners are taking good care of the only stone arch bridge left in their care in Adams County.

Estimated to be at least 150 years old, it is one of two remaining stone arch, camel-back bridges left in the county. The other is over Bermudian Creek, near Huntingdon Meeting House in northeastern Adams County and is under state supervision.

The walls of the old bridge, which spans Little Conewago Creek near Storm's Store east of the New Oxford-Bonneauville Rd., have been re-pointed and the ice-breakers on the piers that support the two 15-foot spans have been repaired.

Good For Century More

The commissioners who inspected the nearly completed work Wednesday afternoon said they believe the bridge will stand "for at least another 100 years."

The stone arch spans, which are believed to pre-date the covered bridge period, are more rare than the covered bridges of which Adams County now has 23. The bridge being repaired is similar in design, although not as large, as the bridge removed from the Marsh Creek crossing on the Fairfield Rd. a few years ago when the Fairfield Rd. was relocated there and a new concrete and steel bridge erected.

The stone arch bridge the commissioners visited Wednesday contacts Mt. Pleasant and Oxford Twp. there and is known on the county lists as Johns Burnt Mill Bridge.

BOY, 19, WOUNDS 4 PEOPLE WITH HATCHET, RIFLE

LEWISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A three-hour spree by a 19-year-old hatchet and rifle-wielding farm boy was ended today with his surrender after five persons were wounded near here.

All of the wounded, including two state policemen, were reported in "satisfactory" condition.

State Trooper R. H. Raymond said Raymond Runk, a strapping 200-pound youth of Mattawana, Mifflin County, went berserk early last night and wounded the five men before surrendering to a posse near his home.

Wounded were: John Runk, 35-year-old brother of Raymond, cuts of the face and head and loss of several front teeth.

William Boaz, 17, Mattawana, bullet wound of the right leg and foot. He was admitted to the Lewistown Hospital.

Trooper Is Shot
State Trooper Cpl. Edward Rowan, 42, gunshot wound of the right thigh.

LeRoy Harshbarger, 25, Mattawana, puncture wounds of the abdomen.

John Runk and Harshbarger were treated at the scene and the others at the hospital.

Hospital attendants said Harshbarger was struck by stones and bullet splinters thrown up by shots Runk fired.

Sheriff H. Fred Foster, Mifflin County, said Runk was discharged from the Harrisburg State hospital in 1951 after spending six months there.

Rowan said Runk fought with his brother John and struck him either with the hatchet or a plank. Raymond then shot at his father and brother but missed, Rowan said.

Rowan said Runk was hiding behind a tree stump on a hilltop near his home when state police and neighbors arrived.

It was then, Rowan related that Runk opened fire with a high-powered rifle and wounded the four men. Police said Runk fired about 15 shots and they returned fire about six times.

Runk ran into the woods about two miles away and was spotted from the air by H. A. DeFore, Mattawana pilot, whom police had asked to aid in the search.

When he surrendered, Rowan quoted the youth as saying: "I didn't want to shoot anybody. I don't even remember shooting the gun or hitting my brother with anything."

Runk, who escaped injury from police bullets, was described as "highly nervous" when he surrendered to some 50 state, county and borough police.

No charges have been filed against Runk who is being held in Mifflin County Prison.

TEAR GAS HALTS PONTIAC RIOT

PONTIAC, Ill. (AP)—One convict was killed last night when 450 prisoners at the Pontiac State Penitentiary staged a two-hour riot that was quelled by prison guards with three barrages of tear gas.

Edwin Jenkins, 21, of Chicago, was fatally wounded in the back of the head. Vernon von Qualen, Livingston County coroner, said a preliminary autopsy report showed Jenkins was killed by a "high speed projectile." Prison officials said guards used only tear gas, however, and there was no explanation immediately of how Jenkins was struck down in such a manner.

Damage Limited
Damage was limited to several broken windows and a few minor fires which had been set off in trash cans. Pontiac (with 1,500 inmates) is the state's second largest prison.

Warden Daniel E. Bergan said the demonstration began in the west cell block as the prisoners were being returned to their cells after supper.

SENATE GROUP REJECTS IKE'S FARM PROGRAM

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Agriculture Committee today rejected the administration's flexible farm price support program by voting 8-7 to extend rigid supports for another year.

The action came after the group turned down 9-6 a proposed two-year extension of the mandatory supports on the basic crops: wheat, cotton, corn, rice, tobacco and peanuts.

Chairman Aiken (R-Vt) predicted after the closed door session that the Senate would reverse the narrow committee decision in favor of the administration's flexible price support plan.

Mixed Vote
Sen. Young (R-ND) offered the motion for a one-year extension of the high-level supports due to expire with this year's crops.

Littlestown Borough Council Surrenders Its Public Health Responsibilities To The State

The Littlestown Borough Council adopted a resolution that the Department of Health of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania take over the administration of the health laws within the borough at the June meeting of council on Tuesday night held in the office of the borough secretary, Roger J. Keefer, N. Queen St.

Donald Z. Mann, secretary of the board of health, received a communication from the Pennsylvania Department of Health, wherein it was pointed out that Littlestown does not have a health officer at present and that the State Health Board would appreciate notification when such an appointment has been made.

The communication further stated: "In your further consideration of health administration in your community, you may be interested to know that many boroughs in the state are voluntarily surrendering their public health functions to the State Department of Health. If this is done, the State Health Department, at no cost to the borough, will perform all such activities in the borough, including sanitation, public health nursing, public health education and all other public health functions."

It was further stated that, if the borough should wish to take this course of action, a voluntary surrender resolution should be completed and returned to the State Department of Health. Very little discussion was held on the matter. It was the general opinion of council favored the resolution in as much as the borough has had difficulty in obtaining a health officer which would be satisfactory to the State Department without being required to take specific training. The local board of health is composed of the local doctors, "who are apparently too busy to give their better attention to problems pertaining to the public health of the community." It was therefore "deemed advisable" by council that the local board of health be relieved of responsibilities in connection therewith by surrendering their functions to the State Health Department. Resolution No. 152 was then adopted by council.

The meeting began at 8 p.m., with President James V. Yingling presiding. Secretary Roger J. Keefer read his report of the May meeting. The street committee reported that various alleys and streets were in need of repairs, which included the alleys adjacent to Paul E. Ginter and Mrs. Laura Stansbury properties; Basehoar Ford Co. and Dr. Joseph R. Riden properties. Also the sidewalk at Nos. 102-104 W. King St. is in need of repairs.

Pavement Notices Sent

The secretary informed council that notices for construction of curbs and sidewalks on the south side of E. Myrtle St., between Maple Ave. and Park Ave., had been sent to all property-holders and some question arose as to whether it would be advisable to require the curbs and sidewalks constructed on the west side of Park Ave., from Crouse Park to E. Myrtle St. It was felt "in all probability the property owners along this area would voluntarily go along with the construction without a formal notice being sent" to them. Secretary Keefer also told council that word had been received during this meeting from the secretary of the Littlestown School Board to the effect that McDermitt Brothers of Gettysburg had submitted the low bid for constructing the school's sidewalk and curb, which grade would be furnished by the borough upon request to begin the construction.

Secretary Keefer also reported that storm sewer drops and storm sewers from the sewer to the manhole on E. Myrtle St., had been under construction, all in preparation for construction of this section of E. Myrtle St.

Adopt Ordinance

Solicitor Daniel E. Teeter introduced the prepared ordinance known as Ordinance No. 151 regulating openings, excavations in and under the borough thoroughfares. After various sections of the ordinance were explained to the councilmen, it was accepted. It will be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to make any openings in or under any street or alley or other thoroughfare within the borough limits, unless he has obtained a permit from the borough secretary. The permit fee of $2 must accompany each application for a permit. If any provisions of the new ordinance are disobeyed a penalty of $25 will be paid or not more than $100 for each offense.

Discuss Water Shortage

The water committee then brought before council the subject of the water supply, which apparently has been sufficient for normal conditions, but with the lack of rainfall during the last month, and an excessive demand through extravagant use for the watering of gardens and lawns, it is becoming low. Some of the types of sprinklers used were reported as being untended, and were, in some cases, on all night, which violates the ordinance covering water use. In the interest of conserving water for more useful purposes for the preservation of human life and property," council unanimously agreed that "a definite restriction be placed on the water supply prohibiting any water consumer using water from the borough's supply for garden or lawn purposes. Consumers are requested to limit themselves for pavewash and vehicle wash by conserving the water wherever possible so that further restrictions need not be enforced."

Council also agreed to revise the ordinance covering the water supply and rates charged therefor, which after proper study and revision shall be presented to council in the future for appropriate action.

Water permits were issued during the last month to the following: Carl F. and Pringle E. Hermann, 511 S. Queen St., for water service at the Towne Theater, 216 S. Queen St.; Wilbur I. Mayers, 314 Prince St., pave wash use according to the ordinance. Secretary Keefer told Council that 15½-inch water meters had been ordered from the Worthington-Gamon Meter Company, for installation new homes as required from time to time. The order was approved by Council.

Building permits were granted as follows: Roscoe W. Rittase, 523 Prince St., contractor, to paint and repair two story double dwelling for Charles W. Randall, 130 Lumber St.; Harold L. Potts, to paint double dwelling for Harry T. Harner, 152-154 Lumber St.; Clark Fuhrman, 67 Crouse Park, to paint and repair frame dwelling; Harry T. Harner, 361 E. King St. to remove shade tree; Miss Emma B. White, 321 S. Queen St., to remove shade trees at 101-103 Lumber St.; Donald C. Sheely, 345 W. Myrtle St., to paint and repair frame dwelling for Merle H. Breighner, 28 W. Myrtle St.; John L. Reddig, 82 N. Queen St., to dismantle and remove one and one-half story frame building on Charles St. and one and one-half story frame building at rear of 24 W. King St. The secretary was instructed to contact I. H. Crouse and Sons relative to repairing the roof of the Alpha Fire building, which it was understood had a guarantee.

The street committee reported that the street lights had been coming on too late in the evenings and the secretary was instructed to notify the Metropolitan Edison Company to make the proper adjustment on the time clock regulating the lights and to notify the company again regarding relocating the street light at the John N. Sell property, E. King St. Councilman Charles M. Frock, member of the building committee, was authorized to employ Charles A. Hufe to repair the lock on the door of the Alpha building.

Glenn E. Ohler, fire chief, and Bernard M. Selby, representing the Alpha Fire Company, appeared before Council and presented three proposals of various companies to furnish and install a base station transmitting and receiving equipment at the Alpha building. The Alpha Fire Company, through their representative, requested that the borough council go along on a 50-50 payment program for the cost of the installation.

The base prices without aerial or tower, complete and installed were as follows: Charles H. Chaney Jr., Philadelphia, $955; J. M. Hermann, York, $952.50; George H. Hilkert, Williamsport, $946.79. Council agreed to bear one half the cost of the transmitting system, including one half the cost of erecting a tower from the ground in the rear of the Alpha building and the necessary antenna. It was suggested to the committee that they should let the party furnishing and installing the equipment understand that it would have to be installed with a guarantee and would have to be satisfactory or removed.

Flickinger reported receiving the following monies since the last meeting: The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, excavation permit, $2; State Automobile Insurance Company, for damage to fire hydrant by George C. Without Money, Dinner He Ate;

Returning His Check, Three Days
Late: If Diogenes were still around, he could hang up his lantern—the honest man has been found.

This man, whose name will never be known, should have his deed inscribed in stone.

Into Mitchell's Restaurant last Friday he came, having heard of its food through popular acclaim.

Coffee and doughnuts he ate with delight, but he neglected to pay and went into the night.

The next episode reads much better. It happened Monday with the receipt of a letter.

Five three-cent stamps in the letter, by heck, were just enough to pay for the check.

Today's Talk

INFLUENCE

I would far rather have influence that would keep spreading, and bringing new light into people's minds and hearts, than have all the material wealth in the world and have no influence on the lives of others.

The outstanding figures of the world have always been those of influence for good among those of their time. I rather should say of all time, for good influence actually never dies. The sayings of the wise 5,000 years ago are just as inspiring today as then. A truth is a truth forever!

The humblest person in this world has influence, and often greater than he realizes. It's the character of a person that glows.
But you can't photograph it. It's intangible, yet it is as potent and full of blessings as the clean sunlight. Great personalities have influence that is immediately felt the moment there is direct contact, yet there are scores of people whom we will never see or hear whose influence, because of what they have written, or spoken, or lived, will never die out.

It's a wonderful thing to have a good influence upon those whom we meet from day to day. I have friends whose very presence in a room is stimulating and uplifting.
In my town I attend a weekly luncheon, where many noted people gather, but there are a few whom I meet from time to time that have an unusual influence upon me and who light up my heart with happiness.

The good influence of many a teacher of mine, in high school and college, remains with me to this day. I wish I could adequately have thanked many of them long ago, for many have passed on to their higher reward. What a blessed thing it is to have influence upon others, and to be blessed with their influence!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Just Believe And Be Glad."

INFLATION
Time was a cent I eyed
With both happiness and pride.
With a penny, rich was I.
What I wanted I could buy.
Then, at any candy shop
I could get a lollipop.

Later on to me it seemed Pennies weren't so well esteemed.
What a cent would once supply
Cost a nickel then to buy.
For a nickel I was sold
The sweet "penny's worth" of old.

But the nickel was in time
Overtaken by the dime,
And the nickel and the cent
Out of favor promptly went.
Then, unless a dime he had
For a boy 'twas just too bad.

For the candy that's desired
Now a quarter is required,
And that seems to me a lot
For what once the penny got.
And the cost still higher goes.
It's inflation, I suppose.

Sharp Disagreements Furnish Setting For Ike And Churchill In Talks Beginning On Friday

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Preliminaries indicate that the Eisenhower-Churchill conference opening here tomorrow will be held in an atmosphere of sharp disagreement.
Diplomats are beginning to wonder whether they will produce a real reconciliation of basic differences.

British Prime Minister Churchill and Foreign Secretary Eden are due here before noon tomorrow for meetings with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles which will continue through the weekend.

The ostensible purpose is to seek a closing of the gap in British-American relations. The result may be agreement on impending diplomatic moves coupled with an understanding of basic disagreements.

Developing Differences
Here are some of the steadily
developing differences:

1. Indochina — Eden told Commons yesterday he hoped it would be possible to agree to a Southeast Asian defense system against aggression encompassing a general non-aggression pact in which Communist and free nations would join, plus a straight-out free nation defensive alliance. Eden put Britain on the side of moving slowly toward an Asian alliance as a long-range means of protection.

U.S. officials have hoped that Churchill and Eden would agree to move quickly toward formation of a Southeast Asian pact. Furthermore, there appeared to be little enthusiasm for making non-aggression treaties with the Communists on the ground that such treaties generally have no meaning.

Talking About Revisions

2. European Defense Community —The United States has been talking about a revision of its policies.
Based for years on creation of an international army including French and German forces. Because of French inaction, American officials have thought the talks this weekend should consider alternative ways of arming West Germany outside the proposed EDC.

Word is now circulating, however, that the British—never too keen about EDC—have more interest in alternatives than the United States is ready for. American officials fear that any pressing for alternatives might endanger whatever chance still exists of getting EDC ratified by France.

yesterday that some consideration must be given soon to restoring

Colonialism Issue

German Ambassador Heinz L.
Krekeler called on Dulles, and the State Department later announced that the secretary, while saying there is "a good prospect" for EDC approval, told Krekeler that if it does not come about, "there should be prompt consideration" of restoration of West Germany's sovereignty.

3. Colonialism — Reports have circulated for several days that Dulles intends to make clear to the British that the United States would not hereafter feel bound to follow their lead in colonial areas of the world. Dulles is said to feel this government must appear to the world as a champion of freedom and independence.

Specifically, the secretary has been reported as interested in having the British come to some agreement with the Egyptian government over defense of the Suez Canal, long a thorny London-Cairo issue.

British diplomats in Washington heard that Dulles discussed what he considers to be the colonialism problem at a private meeting with some newsmen about a week ago.
It is a fair guess that if Dulles does not bring up the issue himself, Churchill or Eden very likely will do so.

JUDGES CLEAR LADY MOTORIST, FALSIFIED AGE

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

A Mrs. Edward Nicholson was hailed into a New York lower court recently and charged with falsifying her age on three motor vehicle registrations.

It seems that Mrs. Nicholson, in same year, listed herself as being born in 1914, 1915 and 1918.

Two Special Sessions justices, cavaliers and wise men both, dismissed the charges, and Mrs. Nicholson breezed out of court. At this moment, Mrs. Nicholson's correct age is still her own secret.

Usual Clip 5 Years

But the discouraging part about the story, triumphant as has been Mrs. Nicholson's victory for all women, is that every last person who hears about the case is going to conclude she was born at least, in 1914—and most other women are automatically going to add another five years to that, deducing she REALLY was born in 1909. The normal number of years a woman clips from her true age, if she's going to clip, is five.

I'm glad Mrs. Nicholson took liberties with her motor registration, and I wish some brave female would fight the business of revealing her age publicly right up to the Supreme Court.

I can see why my doctor should know my age; why an insurance company should know what the terms of their gamble is. But I must say, most times I run across those little age questions, about the only reason I can find is simple, uncomplicated nosiness. I see no reason why my bank, for instance should be privy to my year of birth, provided they can be assured I'm over 21. I don't really think the number of years I've been around has any direct bearing on my opening a charge account, provided my credit is good.

Facts Of Life

As nearly as I can figure out, there are two specific types of prevarication which are not only acceptable but smiled upon indulgently by the most passionate seekers of unvarnished truth. One is a woman's own statement of her years. The other is a man's account of the size of a fish he almost

Braves' Davy Jolly Stops Fast-Moving Giants; Their Lead Is Cut To Single Game

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Depending on where you'll find him, "Jolly good" may sound like English slang or phoney Indian talk. But around the tribal councils of the Milwaukee Braves it means it's a good thing Jolly's good.

Dave Jolly is the Braves' "saver," the pitcher who gets the call when the going is the toughest. He has the special job of protecting leads in late inning or stopping the opposition while his own team still has a chance to win.

The lean right-hander from Stony Point, N.C., has been delivering in brilliant style. He's in his second full term in the majors, after seven years' seasoning in the minors, and so far he has been in 23 games, more than a third of the Milwaukee total.

Best The Giants
In 36 innings Jolly has given up only 23 hits and 4 earned runs for a sparkling earned run average of 1.00. His personal record shows two victories and two defeats. One of his most spectacular performances came yesterday in Milwaukee's 5-2 triumph over the fast-moving New York Giants.

Jim (No-Hit) Wilson sailed into the last of the ninth with a three run edge en route to his fourth straight victory. But the Giants, who think they own the copyright on Frank Merriwell finishes, got rid of Wilson with successive singles by Monte Irvin and Don Mueller.

With the dangerous Willie Mays at bat, Jolly stroled to the rescue. He worked the count to 2-2 on Mays, who had homered earlier, before hitting him in the back to fill the bases.

Single Game Edge
Then Jolly applied the pressure. Pinch hitter Hank Thompson fouled a short fly. Wes Westrum lofted out. And Bobby Hofman, who has hit three pinch hit home runs this season, popped up in front of the plate to end the threat.

Brooklyn took advantage of Milwaukee's success and cut the Giants' first place margin to a single game by beating Cincinnati 6-3. St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 7-1 as Harvey Haddix won his 12th game. Philadelphia whipped Chicago 5-3.

Indians Beat A's
In the American League Cleveland tripped Philadelphia 5-2. Chicago outlasted Washington 8-6. New York defeated Detroit 9-4 and Baltimore broke its nine-game losing streak, shattering Boston 8-7 in a 17-inning marathon that ran 4 hours 58 minutes, the longest game ever played in the American League and one minute short of the longest night game in major league history.

Four Boston runs in the ninth sent the game into overtime and the Orioles finally won in the 17th on a single, a fluke double, a walk and a successful dash for home by Jim Bederes over a grounder in the infield. Boston executed the season's second triple play in the first inning.

Hershey Arena Has Mat Card Friday
HERSHEY, June 24 — Is Gorgeous George Grant the grade-A wrestler he is reputed, and claims, to be? The answer to that question will be provided Friday night when he trades holds with Antonio Rocca in the main event of Promoter Berta Bertolini's all-star wrestling show in the Hershey Sports Arena.

In the semi-windup, Chief Blue Eagle, another Hershey favorite, will take on ponderous Man Mountain Dean Jr.
The show will get under way at 8:45 with a tag team match in which the new Mister America and Herman Fisher will oppose Harry Lewis and Reuben Silverman. Leo (The Lion) Liberace will scuffle with California Nature Boy in the fourth tugfest on the evening's bill-of-fare.

Mother Of 3 Wins Crown For Cooking
GEORGETOWN, Del. (AP) — A 43-year-old housewife and mother of three today won the crown of National Chicken Cooking Queen.

Mrs. Steven J. Barczewski, who lives on a 240-acre farm near Newark, Del., won the title, $500 and other prizes yesterday at the 7th annual Delmarva Chicken Festival. Her recipe: Broiled chicken baked with white wine and crab apple jelly and served with tea biscuits. It won over 29 other entries.

Birdie Tebbetts, manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, received his nickname because of his shrill voice.
Both Baltimore and Milwaukee regained major league franchises after 52 year intervals.

Andrews Defeats Nardico On TKO
CHICAGO, June 24 (AP)—Confident Paul Andrews, a rangy ex-paratrooper with a stiff punch in either hand, today drew a bead on an Aug. 4 bout with spoiler Jimmy Slade after enhancing his light-heavy ranking here last night.

Andrews scored a fourth-round technical knockout over rugged Danny Nardico at the Chicago Stadium. The 24-year-old Andrews, ranked sixth as a 175 pounder, dropped Nardico for a nine count in the third round and the Tampa, Fla., slugger was waved off as he tried to start the fourth.

Tonight's Game
Cubs vs. Yankees, 6:15.

The Cubs moved into first place in the Little League standings by downing the Tigers 9-4 in a well played ball game, Wednesday evening.

The Cubs scored in the first inning. Sam Hartley walked, went to second on Greg Maitland's single. Both runners advanced on Stokes' ground out and Hartley tallied on Gary Maitland's sacrifice fly to right.

In the bottom of the first the Tigers tallied when Bricker singled and went to second on an infield error, scoring as another miscue put Townsend on base. The Tigers pulled out in front in the third as the Rotary team pushed in two runs on two hits. Heikkinen walked and scored when Bricker came all the way around on a long triple and an error.

In the fourth the Cubs knocked in a run as G. Fair got on first on a fielder's choice, went to second on a passed ball, and scored on Tuckey's single. The Cubs added four more runs in the fifth via walks to Greg Maitland and Stokes, singles by Gary Maitland and Sprinkle and a long triple to deep right by Spercher. They added three more in the sixth as the Maitland brothers each blasted out homers, one with C. Fair aboard.

The Tigers last score came in the fifth on a triple by Townsend and a single by Mike Codori.
Gary and Greg Maitland led the hitting for the winners as they collected two hits each. Townsend and Bricker each pounded out a pair of hits to help the Tigers' list.

Little League Will Hold Banquet; Teams To Adopt Names Of Their Sponsors

Tentative plans for a banquet for all participants in Little League baseball and the changing of names of the teams to that of the sponsors highlighted the business transacted at a meeting of league officials Wednesday evening at the fire engine house.

It was decided to hold a banquet for the squads at the conclusion of the season as a replacement for the trip to witness a big league baseball game. Arrangements will be announced later.

The change in names was made after many requests from fans, and will more readily identify the teams. Nicknames will be dropped in future stories and will be replaced by the name of the sponsor backing each squad.

Announcement was made that a minor league game will be played Wednesday evening, July 7, immediately following the Little League game. Minor leaguers are the youngsters from seven to 12, including a number who failed to be selected for Little League play but who are available for advancement as their play improves. Caps and T-shirts are to be provided the youngsters.

It was decided to postpone the game scheduled for Thursday, July 1, to July 23, due to the firemen's parade that evening. It was also announced the Giants-Tigers game, rained out June 16, will be played July 22. In the future rained-out games will be played Saturday afternoons.

Approval was given to the cancellation of the Little League game scheduled for the evening the Big Little League opens its season. The date of the opening of the Big Little League has not been set as yet.

President Charles Smith presided at the meeting at which all teams were represented.

Buckley led the 13-hit attack for the winners with a homerun and pair of singles. Little and Staub also homered for the Vets. Dayhoff, with a double and single, led the Eagles' five-hit assault.

Young Army Lads Bow To Vet Sprinter
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Alex Litman claims to be the oldest active sprinter. At 34 he's still good enough to beat the fellows who run in the Army.

Litman, a medical technician at Brooke Army Medical Center here, runs 100 yards in 9.6 and the 220 in 21.5. He did those times in winning the dashes at the Fourth Army track and field meet at Fort Sill, Okla.

The Texan (he's from San Angelo) has been running in Army meets since 1940. The best time he ever posted in the 100 was 9.5 in Hawaii in 1945. His best in the 220 was at Fort Dix, N.J., in 1946 when he posted 20.7.

Litman points out that other active sprinters, Herb McKinley and Mal Whitfield, are 33 and 32 years old respectively.

The 1954 PGA championship will be held July 21 through 27 at Kellier golf course, St. Paul, Minn.

Dauntless Divot Digger Discovers Duffers Delight Defying Distant Doglegs

By A. DUFFER

The arrival of the first day of summer Monday signaled the opening of the vacation-and-swim season while coincidentally marking the unofficial "kick-off" of the American Duffers Association—a not-too-exclusive organization for Mr. Average Golfer.

This past weekend, many of the county's army of hackers anticipated the challenge by invading private and public courses throughout Adams and neighboring counties—leaving a trail of excavations and an amazing variety of picturesque lingo in their wake.

Thinking to save Mr. Average Golfer a few of the troubles usually associated with the first round of the summer, I essayed a journey to a local course Sunday afternoon.

Another Investigation
Here then is a factual report of the conditions one may expect to encounter this year at the pretty Graeffenburg public links, a course designed to call into use every club in the bag—and most of the balls, too.

Undaunted by either the blistering temperature or the usual crude assortment of golf-house jockeys, our determined foursome strode to the initial tee. Somewhere in the distance 360 yards away lay the first green, a par four with a wicked dogleg to the right.

Planting myself firmly (like I've seen Sned do in the movies) I leaned into the first shot and the jockeys gasped. I'd forgotten about Route 30 to the left and just missed decapitating the chauffeur of a gaudy yellow convertible.

Placing ball to tee, I again sighted my objective, swung mightily, and blasted a shot that trickled wearily several yards to the right and died. "Scratch hit to second," some wise guy said. What I replied could well be repeated as this is a family journal.</

Reach Compromise
On Defense Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agreement was reached by Senate and House conferees late yesterday on the money bill to run the defense establishment in the fiscal year starting July 1.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) said the total would be "slightly less than 29 billion dollars" — a little under administration budget requests.

The House and Senate must still approve the compromise, an adjustment of varying versions they had passed earlier.

Another appropriation bill, carrying $723,683,150 in new cash for the Agriculture Department, was sent to the White House yesterday. The total is about 25 million dollars more than President Eisenhower asked.

News Of Special Interest To The Residents Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

ASK PROTECTION OF HISTORIC AND SCENIC AREAS

Petitions are being circulated by Emmitsburg citizens requesting the State Roads Commission, considering the relocation or improvement of Route 15 between Emmitsburg and Thurmont, to avoid needless destruction of historic or scenic sites along the present route.

Rumor has it that the new road will pass directly in front of the Taney residence near Mount St. Mary's. This has long been one of the most beautiful gardens in the area, with the boxwoods in particular exciting a good deal of comment. Some seven feet in height, they are unsurpassed even by those at Mount Vernon, considered among the most spectacular in the U.S.

Petitioners are asking the State Roads Commission, for consideration in this matter. Present information about road improvement is negligible. Surveyors have worked on both sides of Route 15 suggesting that the new four-lane highway will run in back of St. Anthony's School, through the wooded area behind Fr. Elwood Barry's residence, past the Mount St. Mary's faculty houses, and directly in front of the Taney residence.

However, there have also been surveys along the old Frederick Road and some behind the Opekum residence. No reliable information has been reported from State Roads Commission offices.

Chief Kaas Needs Air Raid Spotters

Police Chief Daniel J. Kaas of Emmitsburg is seriously concerned about public reaction to the plane spotter service operating atop the VFW building. There is still need for volunteers to man the station with any degree of efficiency. At present, Chief Kaas reports that it is difficult to secure enough spotters "to man the town for two hours in a row." Volunteers for the evening hours are particularly sought. Chief Kaas would also like a fuller cooperation as far as other Civil Defense measures are concerned. There is great necessity for registration of citizens with cars and trucks for evacuation and for nurses to aid in case of disaster. Volunteers can register with Chief Kaas.

Bible School Opens Monday; Ends June 30

The annual vacation Bible School under the direction of the Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of the Elias Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg, began on Monday and will extend through June 30.

Sessions are held daily in the Lutheran Parish Hall from 9 to 11:45 except on Saturdays and Sundays. All children of the community from 3 through 15 years have been invited to attend. Pastors of several other community churches are aiding Rev. Bower.

The Canadian National Railway with 24,150 miles of main track and 9,000 miles of secondary track is rated as the largest in North America.

R. F. SAPPINGTON GIVES POSITION IN CAMPAIGN

R. Francis Sappington, Lime Kiln who resigned as George P. Mahoney's Frederick County campaign manager last week because of the Democratic gubernatorial candidate's "insincerity," reiterated his position at a meeting of Emmitsburg voters Monday night.

Sappington told the group: "When I announced my resignation as campaign chairman for Frederick County in support of George P. Mahoney, Hugo H. Hoffman charged that, as late as Wednesday last, I had sought the Mahoney treasurer for primary day funds. The truth is that I did try to contact Mahoney's Baltimore headquarters but failed to locate any responsible official.

"The purpose of my telephone call was to get some information as to whether any funds had been allocated to Frederick County. I was personally interested because I had spent substantially from my own funds in behalf of Mahoney's campaign. I sought—and am still seeking—reimbursement.

"On Thursday, Mr. Mahoney phoned a number of local people, exhorting them to prevail upon me to reconsider my action in resigning as his campaign manager and 'return to the fold.' I am here tonight to reaffirm my whole-hearted endorsement of Dr. H. C. Byrd for governor of Maryland.

"I am convinced that Mr. Mahoney is insincere in his campaign pledges and commitments. He proved this insincerity to me when I questioned his recent statement that he would sign a veterans bonus bill.

"Mr. Mahoney told me not to worry about his promise to the veterans because he had left plenty of loopholes in his statement so that he would not have to sign any bonus bill. He had only said he would sign the Bonus Bill to get the veterans' votes. Mr. Mahoney's bonus statement is so full of loopholes that they and everyone else laughs at it.

"I want nothing more to do with it."

Award Contract For Work On Route 15

Hempt Bros. of Camp Hill Wednesday were awarded the contract to improve 3.39 miles of U. S. Route 15 from Eichelberger's Curve, Camp Hill, to the Gettysburg Interchange of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

The State Highway and Bridge Authority announced that the project involves four lanes of divided pavement through Upper and Lower Allen, Hampden and East Pensboro Townships and will cost $2,087,326.

Elder Legion Drill Team Wins Again

The American Legion Drill Team of the Francis X. Elder Post received the prize for the best appearing unit in the recent Taneytown parade, marking the second time in two weeks that it had been so honored.

Participating in the parade were Everett Chrismer, George Danner, Allen Davis, Sterling Goulden, Charles B. Harner, Thomas Harbaugh, Paul McGlaughlin, T. E. Rodgers, Joseph E. Rodgers, John Rosensteel, Louis F. Rosensteel, Andrew T. Shorb, William L. Topper, Leo Topper, Donald F. Topper, William T. Lizer, Edgar Wastler, Eugene Sprinkle, William Weldner, George Ashbaugh Jr., Edward Houck, John S. Hollinger, Clifford Eyer and John Sites.

The drill team is scheduled to participate in the Gettysburg parade on July 1, at Thurmont August 5, and Taneytown, July 31.

Fly ash, a waste product recovered by plants that burn large quantities of coal, can be used as a substitute for part of the Portland cement in concrete and users say it improves the quality of the concrete.

Several years head man at Delone Catholic High School will also depart from the local scene this summer. McMahon, like Clarke a former varsity basketball coach at Mount St. Mary's, takes a new job at Taneytown High just outside New York City.

2 EMMITSBURG MEN CAMPAIGN FOR MD. VOTES

Two Emmitsburg men face the decision of the voters in next Monday's primary elections.

Samuel C. Hayes, president of the Emmitsburg Water Co., is a candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner. A graduate of Emmitsburg High School and Lafayette College, he has long been interested in community affairs and has been particularly active in representing the citizens before the Frederick County School Board.

Lumen F. Norris, a graduate of Mount St. Mary's College and a Purple Heart veteran of World War II, ETO, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the House of Delegates. Norris has been very active in veteran and community affairs.

Voting will take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. Precincts 1 and 2 will cast their ballots at the Fire House, Precinct 3 at the school house, St. Anthony's. Voters will nominate candidates.

for governor, the central committee, sheriff, county commissioner, attorney general, comptroller of the treasury, Congress of the U.S., state's attorney, and House of Delegates.

Light balloting is forecast throughout the state. The key struggle seems to be that between George P. Mahoney and Dr. H. C. Byrd for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Ambulance Fund Benefit Saturday

A benefit bingo will be held Saturday evening on the lawn of St. Joseph's Rectory, Emmitsburg.

Chairman Clyde Eyer has announced an attractive free drawing for the affair featuring a new bottled gas range donated by the Matthews Gas Co.

The benefit is being held for the VFW ambulance fund. The ambulance, on call 24 hours a day as a public service, is entirely dependent on the summer benefits to insure efficient operation. There has never been any public subscription fund by the VFW to cover cost of operation and maintenance. Citizens are urged to attend the benefit "to help the VFW help the citizens of Emmitsburg."

COURT GRANTS ANNULMENT ON RED CHARGES

NEW YORK (AP) — A State Supreme Court referee has recommended that the Vienna-born wife of a former American GI is entitled to an annulment on grounds that he falsely denied he was a Communist.

The case involves Mrs. Eva Maretta Verber, whose husband, Otto Verber, 31, is serving a 3½ to 10 year sentence in Lewisburg, Pa., Federal prison on a charge of conspiring to collect vital military secrets.

Mrs. Verber testified yesterday that, prior to their marriage in 1941, she specifically asked Verber if he was a Communist and he denied it. She based the question, Mrs. Verber said, on suspicions raised by her father.

Her husband, with his brother-in-law, Kurt Ponger, was sentenced by Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff in Washington, D.C., on June 8, 1953. The two were convicted of being members of a postwar espionage ring.

Referee Earle S. Warner agreed with Mrs. Verber that her husband's denial constituted fraud. Warner said he would recommend an annulment to the State Supreme Court, which almost always abides by the recommendation of a referee.

TWO COACHES LEAVING HERE

Two familiar faces will be missing from the Emmitsburg sporting scene in coming weeks.

William A. Clarke Jr., coach of last year's Mason-Dixon basketball champions and of the first soccer team in Mountaineer history, will take up his new position as head basketball coach at East Meadows High School, Long Island, where in addition to his coaching job he will also act as supervisor of all basketball coaches in the extensive East Meadows school system.

Clarke will leave for New York this weekend to supervise construction of his new home. He expects the new residence to be ready for occupancy by July 15 at which time his wife and three children will join him.

Reds Defeat United States, Diplomatically At Geneva And On Military Front In Indochina

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, in his State of the Union message last Jan. 7, proudly proclaimed this country had seized the initiative in the cold war with communism.

Whatever happened to that initiative? Here, six months later, instead of having the Communists on the defensive, this country has been baffled on two fronts: Diplomatically, at the Geneva conference, and militarily, in Indochina.

It was Secretary of State Dulles who was the big talker. He spoke ominously of the "massive retaliation" this country would invoke if the Chinese Communists invaded Indochina to help the Vietminh.

This startled America's European allies, who could envision themselves engulfed in an atomic war. But, instead of startling the Chinese, it may have amused them.

China Took Over
They didn't have to send troops into Indochina to help the Vietminh. The Vietminh had manpower. What it needed was supplies, equipment, and Chinese advisers and technicians. China sent them.

The net result: The Vietminh crushed the French at Dien Bien Phu and have been pushing them back since; rising Vietminh prestige probably won them new Indochinese recruits by the thousands; and the will of the French to win in Indochina was mauled.

Meanwhile, the administration set out to deal with the Communists diplomatically at Geneva where the foreign ministers of the United States (Dulles), Britain (Eden), France (Bidault), Russia (Molotov) and China (Chou En-lai) began their conference April 26.

Dulles opened with a disaster. This was his publicly known failure, on the very eve of the conference, to get the British and French to join in united action in Indochina.

Wanted British Help
The French, according to reports, sought American intervention but Dulles balked without British help. The British didn't want to get into a shooting war before they had a chance to see whether the Indochina problem could be settled at Geneva.

When the Vietminh crushed the French at Dien Bien Phu, the French threw out Premier Joseph Laniel and his Cabinet, including Bidault. They picked as the new Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

He took office in the midst of a rising French demand for peace in Indochina. He promised to get it in 30 days or quit. He journeyed yesterday to Bern to see Chou En-lai. Afterwards he said he hoped for "happy progress." What this meant was not known.

It might mean an armistice giving the Vietminh most of Viet Nam, the biggest of Indochina's three states. That might soon lead to Communist absorption of all Viet Nam and the other two states.

LOSE INTEREST IN YEARLINGS

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—A Cornell University professor said today 4-H club members do an "excellent job" of feeding project animals when they are calves but lose interest when the animals enter the yearling stage.

"A study of the 806 4-H club dairy records shows that the youngsters lose interest after their calves become about a year old," said Prof. H. A. Willman, of the Ithaca, N. Y., school.

In a report to dairy research scientists attending the closing session of the three-day annual meeting of the American Dairy Science Assn. here, Willman reported:

"However, the club members are doing a better job of keeping records now than they were in 1948. Exactly 21 per cent more records rated either excellent or very good in 1953 over 1948."

The dairy industry's highest awards were presented yesterday to five research scientists including Delaval Extension Dairy Award and $1,000 to Charles R. Gearhart, professor of Dairy Husbandry Extension at Pennsylvania State University.

Dedicate Farm Show To School

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—The 1955 State Farm Show next January will be dedicated to the Pennsylvania State University in honor of the year-long observance of its 100th anniversary.

Miles Horst, retiring secretary of agriculture, presiding yesterday at his last meeting as chairman of the State Farm Show Commission at which the decision was made.

Horst has been chairman of the Commission for 11 years because of his post as head of the State Agriculture Department.

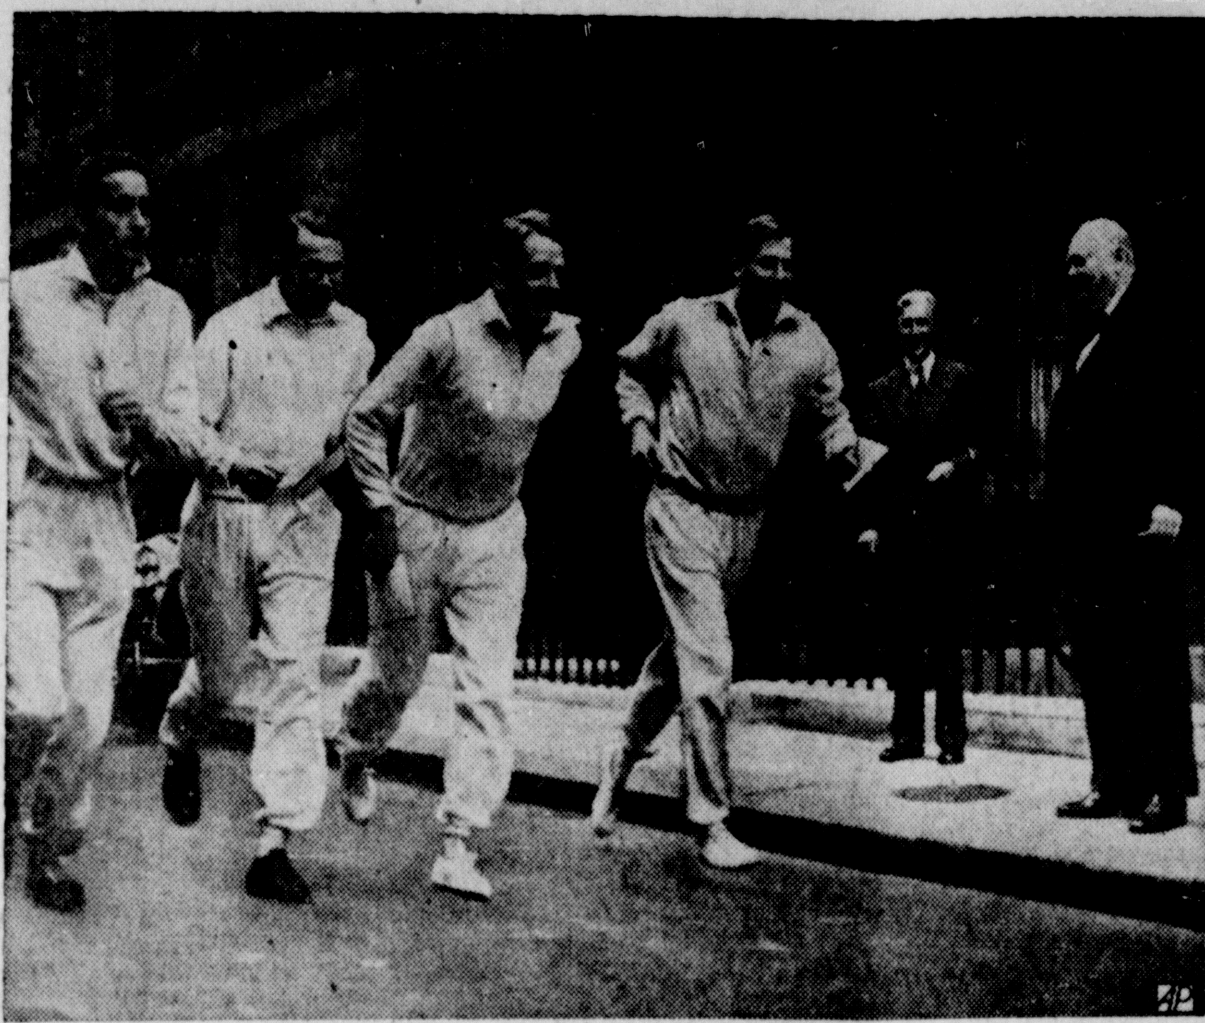

Horst said he would resign July 1 as secretary of agriculture to give his full time to the post of Republican state chairman.

He was elected to the party job last Saturday by the Republican State Committee at a salary of $20,000 a year. The cabinet post pays $15,000.

DETROIT LAKES, Minn. (AP)—Two Becker County jail prisoners divided a $5 reward for turning in a thief who had been pilfering cars parked next to the jail. Sheriff David Winnstrom offered the reward to any prisoner who could spot the thief at work.

SURE IS DRY

TOPEKA, Kans. (AP)—The mail brought Gov. Edward F. Arn a reminder of the drought. A letter from a friend, C. C. Evans of Russell, Kans., bore notations that the stamp was affixed and the back flap closed with pins because "no moisture is available" to seal them.

"Pop" Hughes

Hughes, Lawn Mower and Bicycle Service."

But those who know the fatherly mechanical wizard could print a better one, such as "We Fix Anything But A Broken Heart" . . . for it is more than likely he has accomplished that miracle on more than one occasion. Often a token payment of a nickel or dime is enough to treat the ills of a small friend's limping tricycle or fractured scooter.

"I have a big time with the kids around here," he says, admitting that in his own time he was "quite a rumpus-raiser."

However, that which is Pop's pleasure is often a trifle inconvenient to neighborhood mothers. Quite frequently a warm meal is cooled by the tardiness of children in the "other worldliness" of Mr. Hughes' domain.

A pensioned Western Maryland railroad man, "Pop" says he runs his general repair shop as a hobby and "to wile away the time between my yearly trips to Florida." Next to his young clientele, his greatest love is fishing.

Telephone Was A Worry
Nodding at an empty corner of his work-bench he noted—"Once had a phone in here, but I had 'em take it out. Too much trouble . . . customers interfered with my fun."

"Pop," as the erect, bespectacled mechanic is widely known, is a native of Maryland. He was born in Sabillasville in 1881 and came to Gettysburg in 1896 at the age of 15 years.

Retired In 1949
In his own words he "knocked around" several years as a laborer in Pfeffer's and the Gettysburg Brick Yards, as a worker for the Gettysburg Furniture Factory, and as a police officer here from 1914 to 1916. In 1917 he obtained steady employment with the Western Maryland Railroad.

"My job was to check cars for defective equipment," he parodied. He was pensioned in 1940 and "I've been having the time of my life ever since."

Mr. Hughes resides in the Troxell Apartments with his wife, the former Ella McBee. He was remarried in 1952 as a June groom. His first wife, formerly Mary Mae Dougherty, died in 1939.

He is the father of three boys from his first marriage. They are: Edward, 442, of Chambersburg St.; Fred, 36, Fairfield Rd., and Philip, 28, Howard St., a compositor at The Gettysburg Times. Another member of the Hughes family is Mrs. Harmon Nary, Straban Twp., whom "Pop" took into his home at the age of three years. She was formerly Mildred Berheler.

Solved Early Problems
Pop attributes much of his mechanical ability to an inquisitive and mathematical mind.

"I remember when my boys were going to school and they'd come home with a problem and worry about it and scratch their heads. I'd sit down and have it solved in two or three minutes by a shorthand method."

"You can't do it that way, Pop," the kids would say, but I says to them, heck, two and two make four, doesn't it? Well, there's the answer."

Hughes opened a bicycle shop in "Race Horse Alley" in the rear of the Hotel Gettysburg in 1939 and at one time had 29 bikes for rent. "My boys, Ed and Phil, helped me," he said, "and whichever one got the money usually spent it."

He soon graduated into fixing and sharpening lawn mowers and cleaning and repairing all types of clocks. He moved to the Liberty St. shop, June 1, 1953.

"Too Many Gadgets"
He is a trifle contemptuous of the modern-day bike—"Bicycles now-a-days ain't as good as they were in my day . . . just ain't got the stuff in 'em anymore. Another thing," he continued, "although we didn't have coaster brakes in my day we did have hand brakes—they ain't new. Why, these here bicycles have too many gosh-darned gadgets to 'em," he said pointing to the assortment lying about the shop.

He said that a bicycle which today sells for $50, $60, $70 would have sold for "around $25" in the early 1900's.

Returning to his favorite topic, kids, "Pop" laughed, "They talk about juvenile delinquency—why, the kids of today are tame compared to some of the pranks we used to pull off. I remember we'd corral some horses, line 'em all up at the York-Hanover-Liberty St. intersection, and then make a bee-line right up through Center Square to the Meade School."

"Another time, one Halloween, our gang went up to Aaron Sheely's place (Judge W. C. Sheely's grandfather), got some farm machinery, and hauled it to the Bonneauville bridge where we dumped it into the 'Peet Foot Ocean' in Rock Creek."

"Next morning about 10 o'clock I'm lounging around where Nick's is located and this here big constable, Charlie Wilson, comes up. Now I want to tell you this guy was big! Well, he stands there and all he says is—Get those things out of there."

"So, I rounds up the gang and we hitched a horse to the machinery, pulled it out, and hauled it back to Mr. Sheely's farm. Everyone—especially Mr. Sheely—had a big laugh out of it."

In the period shortly after the turn of the century Hughes worked as a motorman aboard the old trolley line which ran sightseers from the present site of the Victor Products Corporation plant, N. Washington St., to the base of Little Round Top.

The company operated six open cars with a seating capacity of 75 per car. "I have the record for number of fares on one trip," Pop boasts. "Once squeezed 212 fares on one car." The track was dismantled in 1917.

Hughes, a former volunteer fireman, also played an alto or "peek horn" in the GAR Band for almost 40 years, back in 1896.

its quota in the seven years of its existence.

Rev. Mr. Held's report disclosed that Gettysburg led the 11 county districts with $1,263.43. Biglerville was second with $362.64 and Littlestown third with $350.46. New Oxford followed with $278.64. Fairfield was fifth with $152.89, with Arendtsville following closely with $148.91. Bendersville totalled $93.32 and York Springs $92.92. East Berlin contributed $87.73, McSherrystown $52.66 and Abbottstown $35.21.

All districts exceeded their quota and nearly all exceeded their 1953 contributions.

Rev. Mr. Held announced that the annual meeting of the association will be held at a luncheon at the Hotel Gettysburg Tuesday at 12:15 o'clock. All who have contributed $1 or more are members of the association and are eligible to attend the meeting. Each attendant will be asked to bear the cost of his own luncheon, the executive director said.

Nearing complete recovery from an operation performed seven weeks ago, Rev. Mr. Held expressed his appreciation to the people of the county who aided in the campaign.

"We are indeed gratified with the interest that has been displayed and the fine amount that all sections of the county have given to the work of our heart association. It is a fine testimonial to Adams County. The work of the association has been helpful to scores of people directly and to hundreds of our fellow citizens indirectly. All of this is in addition to the very effective research work that we as a county group are able to help on a national level."

FCC MEMBER WILL REPLY TO LAMB CHARGES

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — John C. Doerfer, up for reappointment as a member of the Federal Communications Commission, promised a reply today to a complaint that he has been putting an economic squeeze on a radio-TV station operator.

The Senate Commerce Committee considering his nominations, called him as a witness after hearing him described as unfit to serve by Edward Lamb, Toledo, Ohio, publisher and broadcaster.

Lamb said the FCC had called on him last March to answer charges of past Communist party membership which he swore were unfounded. He blamed Doerfer and said Doerfer had "condemned me for being a Democrat."

Doerfer, first appointed to the FCC last year by President Eisenhower to fill out an unexpired term, declined comment on Lamb's testimony yesterday saying he would reply at today's hearing.

Lamb, accompanied by his lawyer, former Democratic Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath, accused Doerfer of persecuting him and of permitting "personal motives" to interfere with his conduct of a semi-judicial job.

Lamb is the owner of the Erie (Pa.) Dispatch, and he also owns or controls a radio and TV station there as well as radio stations in Toledo and in Orlando, Fla. He also has other varied business interests.

Lamb, sworn as a witness at his own request, testified that he never, directly or indirectly, has been associated with, a member of, a contributor to, or a sympathizer with the Communist party.

Denies Red Ties

On at least six occasions since 1946, he said, he has made sworn denials to the FCC of any Communist affiliations. He also testified he has been cleared by the FBI and yet last March 11, he said, the FCC made public a letter to him in which it said it had received information charging he had been a member of the Communist party for a number of years, particularly 1944-48.

Lamb said this letter was made public nearly a year after his application for renewal of his television license for station WUCU at Erie had been filed with the commission. It and several other applications he has pending, he said, have been held in abeyance.

Lamb testified that when he went to see other members of the commission about speeding up action on his applications, he was told that Doerfer held the "key" to his problem.

Eisenhower Definitely Opposes U.S. Pension For Alger Hiss

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower opposes paying any government pension to Alger Hiss, and the agencies in his administration are mainly concerned that any legislative ban is properly drawn. This was the apparent explanation from various official quarters today after James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, took exception to a number of news stories on the question.

Hiss, a former State Department employee convicted of falsely stating he never passed secrets to a Communist spy ring, would be eligible under present law for a $700-a-year federal pension at age 62. News accounts Tuesday reported the Civil Service Commission and the Budget Bureau felt the government must go through with retirement pay to federal employees even when they are imprisoned for criminal acts. View of the two agencies were communicated to the House Civil Service Committee.

Called "Inconceivable" Two authors of bills to bar a pension to Hiss—Reps. Clardy (R-Mich.) and St. George (R-N.Y.)—used such terms as "inconceivable" and "leaves me aghast" to describe their reactions to the agency communications.

Yesterday Hagerty said he was at a loss to understand how anyone could conclude that the administration is against legislation which would deny Hiss a pension.

"When I brought these stories to the attention of the President," Hagerty said, "He remarked that the existing law seemed unbelievable to one (Eisenhower) whose whole adult life had been spent under a (Army) system where retirement pensions were paid only for honorable service and where conviction of a felony resulted in a forfeiture of all pay and allowances, due or to become due."

"Yes," the press secretary replied when pressed as to whether Eisenhower personally opposed a pension for Hiss.

Wrong Conclusion

Neither the Budget Bureau, a White House agency, nor the Civil Service Commission had sent their reports on the matter to the White House, Hagerty went on. Furthermore, he emphasized, a paragraph in the Civil Service Commission letter showed that a wrong conclusion had been drawn as to the administration's position. This paragraph read:

"If legislation is enacted which would deny annuity payments to Alger Hiss by name, the commission feels H. R. 8712 (introduced by Mrs. St. George) is in better form."

And he disputed that an opposite conclusion could be drawn from a paragraph in the same letter saying the commission "has consistently believed it to be desirable that: (1) crimes be defined and penalties for crime be established through criminal statutes; and (2) the punishment for an individual convicted of a crime be decided and sentence be imposed by the court."

The Budget Bureau letter recommended "against favorable consideration" of a bill which would deny a pension to any federal employee—not mentioning Hiss by name—"who has in the past or may in the future" be convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude. The bureau said in its letter that the courts have held employees have "a contractual right" to retirement pay. It suggested heavier penalties for convicted public officers, if Congress wished them, would better be brought about through stiffening the criminal code.

After Hagerty spoke to reporters yesterday Rowland R. Hughes, acting director of the Budget Bureau, said that agency's letter was directed against "broader" legislation and not against "any of the several bills which would deny pension rights to Alger Hiss."

Philip Young, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, said he wanted to make "crystal clear" that the commission has "made no statement opposing" any of the bills. "The commission believes the objections of these bills are desirable and should be accomplished by some form of legislation provided such legislation is constitutional," he said.

MA KETTLE SAYS BLOUSY CLOTHES INTERPRET ROLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Blustering, lovable Ma Kettle, whose clothes never have placed her on a best dressed list, spends more loving care on her wardrobe than many a screen glamor girl.

Marjorie Main, in real life much like the down-to-earth Ma Kettle of her screen role, says: "Clothes interpret the part." She spends days selecting exactly the kind of tired house dresses a hard-working Western farm mother of 15 children would wear. She says:

"People out in Hollywood say I'm the only woman who carries on this way about clothes."

Selects Wardrobe

The 64-year-old actress always has selected her own screen clothes. Her verbal battles with wardrobe mistresses and directors usually end in a personal tour of piece goods stores in Beverly Hills. She silences critics with the argument:

"Would a woman who said that wear something like this?"

"Although Ma Kettle talks rough," Miss Main says, "there's a softness about her that I try to capture. Ma has to look like a part of the community, but also a little different."

She achieves this effect by soft ruffles around the neck, or by fuller sleeves.

Off the stage, Miss Main pays little attention to her clothes.

Disagrees With Adage

"If someone would write me a script, I'd probably wear the right outfits," she says. "I don't agree that clothes make the woman."

Miss Main, who has appeared in 75 films and nine stage plays, first played so many drab parts that she thought of changing her name to "Marjorie Deadend."

Then came her series with Wallace Berry, the Ma and Pa Kettle films with Percy Kilbride, the soon-to-be-released "The Egg and I," and her role in "The Matchmakers" which might start a third series of films.

A temperature of 189 degrees in the shade has been recorded in Libya, North Africa, says the National Geographic Society.

LAST MINUTE DISCUSSIONS IN BUS STRIKE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Representatives of both sides in the Harrisburg Railways Co. strike held last minute discussions among themselves today preparatory to a joint negotiation meeting tonight.

This will be the third management-union meeting since the strike began nine weeks ago over a wage dispute.

Yesterday the company turned down a proposal by the union that the employees be given a 20 cents per hour wage increase, half of which would be retroactive to last February.

"Ignores The Facts"

In a statement, Harley L. Swift, company president, said of the union proposal, "It ignores the basic facts of the problem before us and contributes nothing to hope for a negotiated settlement."

Federal and state mediators will attend today's joint meeting.

The company employees rejected last week by secret ballot a company offer of a total eight cent wage boost and fringe benefits. Previously the company offered a five cent hourly increase. Swift's statement said the union's

SAYS U.S. IS IN "FRINGE" WARS

ASBURY PARK, N. J. (AP)—The United States is playing into the hands of Russia by getting involved in "fringe" wars, says Rep. James E. Van Zandt (R-Pa.).

The congressman, a former national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, told the annual New Jersey VFW Encampment last night:

"We must realize that we are playing into the hands of Russia when we accept her plan for fighting fringe engagements all over the world in the mistaken notion that we are containing communism. There are Russia's plans for fighting war by proxy. Meanwhile she stands on the sidelines and gleefully watches as the free world yields mile by mile and nation by nation."

20-cent demand would be "financial suicide" for the company.

The union last night called for "public negotiations."

International Union Vice President John M. Elliott said he was "bitterly disappointed" at the company rejection of the union's latest proposal and its "refusal to afford the stockholders an opportunity to vote on the union demands."

The union had requested that the company put its proposal up to a vote of the stockholders.

GSA FINANCES COLLEGE UNIT

HARRISBURG (AP)—The board of the General State Authority has approved issuance of 30 million dollars worth of bonds to finance further commonwealth construction by the GSA.

The board set July 15 for receiving bids on purchase of the issue. To date the authority has issued 155 million dollars in bonds in four previous issues, under its 330-million-dollar borrowing limitation set by the General Assembly.

Executive Director John N. Forker announced appointment of T. Earle Hutchinson, Drexel Hill, as assistant comptroller to serve both with the GSA and the Highway and Bridge Authority.

Shippensburg Dining Hall The authority allocated $825,000 for construction of new dining halls and kitchens at the Shippensburg and Shippensburg State Teachers Colleges.

Of this amount $375,000 will go to Shippensburg, where the present dining hall and kitchen are located in Old Main, a structure dating back to 1871.

The new dining and kitchen plans will be designed to accommodate 650 persons.

Death Solves 42-Year-Old Thompson Kidnap Mystery

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—A kidnap mystery dating back 42 years apparently was solved today by a telephone call from the victim now living in West Virginia.

Robert Thompson was only three years old when his father took him from the home of his mother here in 1912, a short time after his parents were divorced, and custody of their son given to the mother.

He was the object of a nationwide search at the time, but no trace of the child or his father ever was found.

Father Died Recently

The mystery was broken last night when Springfield police received a telephone call from a man who identified himself as Robert Wilson Pitman, 45, of Japonica Land, Woodrum Park, Charleston, W. Va.

"Pitman" told police that his father whom he had known as "Wilson Ambrose Pitman" died recently, and that he learned of his true name and past history from newspaper clippings and other papers he found in his father's effects.

Mother In Hospital

The West Virginia man reported that his father assumed the name of Pitman right after the abduction, and that until his father died, he thought that was his real name.

He telephoned police to ask them if his mother, Mrs. Rose Ethel Mason Thompson, still was living.

Police located an aunt, Mrs. Ruth Rawson, who said that the kidnaped boy's mother, now Mrs. Rose Tracy, of Jericho Center, Vt., is in a hospital at Burlington, Vt., following an eye operation.

Police said the West Virginia man said he will come here and go to Burlington to see the mother he never knew.

He is married and the father of two children, police said.

There were no deaths from plague in the United States between 1949 and 1954.

Harney

HARNEY — First communicants and those received into church membership this past spring will be guests of honor at a reception Friday at 8 p.m., sponsored by the social committee of St. Paul's Church for church members and their families. The reception will be held in the Parish Hall.

The annual picnic of St. Paul's Sunday School will be held Saturday, July 24.

The Ladies Auxiliary of Harney will meet Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bower and family spent Sunday in Pottsville.

Miss Patsy Snyder is spending this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Haines, and her aunt, Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shildt and family and Mrs. Haines spent Saturday evening in Gettysburg.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Snyder and Jake Caples, Reese; Mrs. Harry Clutz and Miss Donna Yingling were callers Sunday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Haines and daughter, Mary.

U.S. Could Lose Short Atomic War

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The United States could lose "a short war" under atomic attack, Val Peterson, federal civil defense administrator, told a conference on self-protection in plants and buildings yesterday. "The main point of such an attack," Peterson said, "would be our production line. . . . And if that should be rendered useless we would be helpless."

Democrats Win 2-1 With 1st No-Hitter

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional Democrats boasted the first no-hitter in Capitol Hill's "World Series" history today — but even so they were hard pressed to maintain their unbroken victory string over a fighting Republican nine.

The annual congressional baseball game went into its fifth and final inning last night with the GOP stalwarts out in front, 1-0, two out and nobody on base. Then came a Democratic deluge:

Rep. Harlan Hagen of California walked and stole second. Rep. Selmski of New Jersey tied up the game with a double. Rep. Eugene McCarthy of Wisconsin fouled off one pitch, took a ball, then walked the third offering into the left field recesses of Griffith Stadium for a triple.

Final score: 2-1, in favor of the Democrats who have yet to lose since the charity series started seven years ago.

FOR WALKING DELEGATE

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — James J. Hughes fell and was injured while walking to his job from a company parking lot. The Connecticut Supreme Court of Errors ruled that he was entitled to workmen's compensation benefits. Walking across company property to and from work, the court said, can reasonably be considered "an incident of the employment."

RR. Reduces Fares To Jersey Resorts

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — A 10 per cent reduction in the cost of four-day round trip tickets on the Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Lines between Philadelphia - Camden and South Jersey resorts will go into effect Sunday.

William H. Mapp, general manager, said the reduced fares are effective at the start of the railroad's expanded summer schedules. He said there is no change in the commutation rates or the 1-day, 17-day, 24-trip or other special ticket fares.

Under the new fares a four-day ticket to Atlantic City will cost $3.85 from Philadelphia and $3.05 from Camden compared to the present $4.20 and $3.40. The fares do not include the 10 per cent federal tax.

OLD MAIDS OPEN CLUB FOR ONE PURPOSE--GIFTS

DENTON, Tex. (AP)—In the spring an old maid has fancies, too.

Miss Dorothy Babb is quite honest about what they're turning to—presents.

"It was in the spring of 1950," says Miss Babb, who teaches Latin at North Texas State College, "that I got to thinking about all these gifts I was buying for somebody else—Mother's Day, graduation, bridal showers, June weddings. I thought of the thousands of dollars I had spent on gifts for others and got nothing in return."

"That's the reason we started Old Maids Day. Some people thought we did it to get a man. It's nothing like that at all. It was just to get some presents."

Put Heads Together

The old maids in Denton—with the good humor to admit it—got together and set Aug. 15 as Old Maids Day. They figured that date was about halfway between the two biggest money-spending times, income tax deadline and Christmas, and they'd be likely to get more presents.

For four years they have celebrated with a tea at the country club. The local theater has a free picture show where popcorn, peanuts and soda pop are on the house. A local florist furnishes a corsage for each. Then friends give them parties and presents.

Some years, several hundred have been in on the fun. Old maids come in from little North Texas towns around Denton. The Denton Record-Chronicle, the Chamber of Commerce and the local merchants make a big to-do about it all.

National Publicity

The resulting publicity has been nationwide. Other old maid celebrations have sprung up across the country, but Miss Babb and her friends have no ambition to make it a national holiday. They're just having fun.

"We don't intend to drop our celebration," says Miss Babb. "To some of the women this one is really and truly something. But don't call it a convention. I couldn't stand a convention of just old maids. I want to have some men around."

Energetic, with graying hair out in a modified poodle cut, and weighing a trim 118 pounds, Miss Babb is known as the original Old Maid around here because she started it all.

Old Maids' Friend

Letters addressed to "The Old Maids' Friend, Denton, Tex.," find their way to her mailbox. She has never counted the proposals she has received in letters since the first celebration.

Her students get a big kick out of it.

"They think they can get me off the subject just by mentioning it," she says. "And I tell them, 'Look

Order Rest For Joe's Wife After Collapse

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A three-day rest in bed has been ordered for Marilyn Monroe, who collapsed three times since the start of her current picture four weeks ago.

Dr. S. R. Kenamer sent her home yesterday after her latest collapse. He said she was run down as a result of a flu attack 10 days ago, but probably would be able to resume her work Saturday at Twentieth Century-Fox Studios.

here, you can forget all the Latin I teach you, but you better not forget Aug. 15."

Three or four of their original group have married since that first Old Maids Day.

"We're just glad they got out," Miss Babb says.

And as for any advice for old maids—

"Tell them that quotation about 'Gather ye rosebuds while ye may.' In other words, you better go on and get a man while you can, because it's later than you think."

To those who ask her how such a good-looking, good-humored woman has remained an old maid, she answers:

"It hasn't been easy."

The United States had 66,500,000 tons of corn, oats and barley stored in April, 1954, nearly 10 per cent above the precious year's record.

Ash-ridden clouds rise from New Zealand's Mount Ngauruhoe during its recent volcanic eruption. Hot boulders with smoking trails can be seen rocketing skyward. Eruption was one of the most spectacular in the recorded history of the mountain. (AP Wirephoto)

SICK WOMAN FINDS TALENT AS SCULPTRESS

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mary Cover, daughter of a Polish patriot who first came to this country in 1902, almost became a professional dancer. But through a long illness, when she amused herself modeling in clay, she found her real talent lay in sculpture.

I met the artist, wife of John H. Cover, a business professor at the University of Maryland, while browsing through the Artist's Mart, a thriving cooperative enterprise set up in 1951. Mrs. Cover is one of the 19 original partners—painters, sculptors, a potter, a weaver and a jewelry designer—who launched the mart to provide a convenient informal outlet for their own work and that of other Washington artists. Some 150 artists have their work on consignment at the Mart.

Mart Work Shop

Mrs. Cover is frequently to be found at the Mart, where she works on her sculpture in a tiny upstairs studio, or in the postage-stamp garden in back. She began working in terra cotta and still uses it as a medium for her portrait studies, which are mostly of children, but now is sculpting out interesting abstracts in wood—black walnut, redwood, oak and maple.

Born Mary Leyman, Mrs. Cover and her mother, an older brother and sister, didn't join the father in Flint, Mich., where he had set up a home for them, until 1906. The family returned to Poland in 1921, after that country had won its freedom from Russia, and Mary finished her schooling in Warsaw and got a job at the American consulate.

A talented dancer, with offers to go on the stage, she said she had to forego the temptation for financial reasons.

Married In 1938

"In 1928 I came back to America on my own and, except for one visit in 1936, I never returned to Poland," she told me. "For four years I worked with the Polish commercial attaché in Washington, and through this work I met my husband. We were married in 1938." It was in 1937, while confined to her bed for months with tuberculosis, that Mrs. Cover began to get a real feeling for sculpture. Once cured, she began serious study with leading artists here and in Cleveland, where she lived for a time. She has exhibited her work at the Corcoran Gallery here and at the Smithsonian Institution with the Washington Society of Artists.

Pennsylvania Industries Are Hard Hit By Trade Policy; Imports Cause Labor Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP)—A non-governmental committee has spelled out in report form the effects of U. S. tariff and foreign trade policy on the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The nationwide Committee of Industry, Agriculture and Labor on Import-export Policy announced Tuesday its study indicated the jobs of 120,000 Pennsylvanians are vitally involved in U. S. tariff and foreign trade.

The report stated "heavy unemployment and production losses" caused by "the destructive effect of imports," have already been felt by many Pennsylvania industries, including coal, textiles, electrical machinery, glass, scientific apparatus, cordage, tableware, carpets, bicycles, lace and wallpaper.

Review of Findings
The committee said its report was a review of the findings and opinions of government agencies and industrial groups, with special emphasis placed on certain industries.

More than one third of the substantial labor surplus areas in the continental United States—17 such—are located in Pennsylvania, the committee said, and in 16 of them the rise in unemployment reflected "to a considerable degree the displacement of local production by an unprecedented volume of foreign imports."

Those sixteen, the report said, are Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Erie, Reading, Altoona, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre-Hazleton, Johnstown, Pottsville, Sunbury-Shamokin-Mount Carmel, Uniontown-Conellsville, Indiana, Clearfield-DuBois, Kittanning-Ford City, Berwick-Bloomsburg, and New Castle.

The committee report included the following comments on individual industries in Pennsylvania:
Bituminous coal: "By 1953 it is estimated that at least 35,000 miners had been thrown out of work as the result of unrestricted dumping of oil waste (residual fuel oil) along the Atlantic seaboard.... Residual fuel imports coast American coal miners over 4 million dollars in wages.... Losses in revenue from hauling coal have also had a severe impact on the state's railroads."

Textiles: "A survey showed 17,300 textile employees had been forced out of the industry between April, 1953, and April, 1954. In 1953, imports of apparel fabrics hit a 30-year high with a value close to 50 million dollars, a more than 400 per cent increase since 1947. Hourly wages of about 42 cents in Britain, 43 cents in France, 30 cents in Italy and 14 cents in Japan (compare) with $1.47 for Pennsylvania textile workers."

Flat glass: "Since 1948 plate glass imports increased 22 times over—1953 imports have cost American glass workers 2,150,000 man-hours of work—European glass workers receive only about one-fifth of the current hourly rate at Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. of about $2.40."

Handmade Glassware
Handmade glassware: "In 1953 incoming shipments of blown glassware amounted to approximately give million dollars—with hourly wages in the United States industry averaging $1.80, foreign manufacturers enjoy comparative wage savings of over $1.00 per man hour—the (American) industry lost 1,500 employees in the last year. Many small plants in Pennsylvania and adjoining states have either closed down or cut back the work-week for their skilled etchers, cutters and decorators."

Wallpapers: "Since 1946 deliveries of domestic wallpaper have decreased approximately 20 per cent while in the same period rollage of wallpaper imports showed an

STEEL STRIKE HANGS ON NEW WAGE CONTRACT

PITTSBURGH (AP)—David J. McDonald, president of the CIO United Steelworkers, started out Wednesday to obtain in a week what hasn't been reached in more than a month—a new contract agreement with the basic steel industry.

A strike is possible at midnight next Wednesday when the present contract expires.
McDonald said Tuesday that

U. S. Steel Corp. has come up with a "completely unsatisfactory" new contract proposal.

Exact Demands Unreported
Details of the proposal, or the union's exact demands, were not revealed.

However, the union's Wage Policy Committee promptly authorized McDonald and other international officers "to take whatever action they deem necessary."

There was no comment from big steel, or from the other basic steel industries whose contract talks have been at a standstill while they waited to see what the leader would do.

Likewise there was no comment on resumption of negotiations. McDonald indicated he would like to have day and night negotiating sessions, if necessary, to hammer out an agreement before the contract expires.

Sources close to some of the Wage Policy Committee members said McDonald stressed the importance of proceeding immediately with negotiations with other basic steel producers rather than sit by and see what U. S. Steel does. There was every indication, these sources said, that McDonald is hopeful that some other large producer might see eye to eye on the union's demands.

In Washington, some unidentified government officials said they expected the contract to be extended, if necessary, to avert a strike.

The union is seeking an unspecified wage boost and improved hospitalization and pension programs, a guaranteed annual wage and other contract changes.

The negotiations with big steel, which began in the middle of last month, recessed last Friday. Top officials of both sides reportedly met Monday night to make a last-ditch effort for an agreement to present to the union's Wage Policy Committee.

PREMIER CHOU LEAVES GENEVA TO VISIT NEHRU

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP) — Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-lai left the Indochina peace conference by plane today to visit Indian Prime Minister Nehru in New Delhi and then on to Peking.

Intimating he would return to the Geneva parley, Chou in a brief farewell statement said he was leaving "for the time being."

The conference, he added, is "still in progress" and the world's "peace-loving peoples hope our work will lead to the eventual establishment of peace in Indochina."

No Mention of Meeting

Chou made no mention of his two-hour meeting in Bern yesterday with France's new Premier, Foreign Minister, Pierre Mendes-France. But both men after their talks issued brief statements saying they believed the delegates at Geneva would make progress toward an armistice as a result of their meeting.

Chou left Geneva in a special Indian plane. He is due in New Delhi tomorrow, to remain there for three days.

Mendes-France returned to Paris last night, to present his Cabinet today to the National Assembly for its approval. On his arrival in the French capital, he told reporters: "We can be optimistic about the approaching development of the Geneva conference."

Delegates To Resume

Neither French nor Chinese sources, however, gave any indication of what the two premiers said to each other. The results of their meeting — on which the entire outcome of the Geneva peace talks appeared to depend — may not become known for several days.

The nine delegations at Geneva were to resume their secret general sessions this afternoon, after a one-day recess. They have been deadlocked over Communist demands for a veto on any commission set up to supervise an Indochina armistice.

Mendes-France, in winning National Assembly approval last week of his premiership, promised to obtain a peace agreement for Indochina by July 20 or resign. He said France would agree to an armistice only on "honorable" terms.

BELIEVES DIKES ALONG RIVER IN IOWA WILL HOLD

DES MOINES (AP) — Optimism that the dikes will hold grew today as the biggest Des Moines River flood in history reached its crest.

But city officials, warned that levees will be subjected to the maximum pressure for several hours, ordered increased vigilance against any "breaks which could put a fifth of the city under water."

The Weather Bureau said the rampaging river reached its peak of 29.98 feet about 2 a.m. It had predicted a crest of 30 feet, 3 1/2 feet above the previous record set in 1947 and 7 feet above flood stage.

7,500 Flee Home

The bureau warned that the river is carrying a "long, flat crest" which will hold the angry waters at their peak level until about 11 a.m. and exert maximum pressure against the strained dikes all that time. The bureau said it then would decline slowly the next four hours.

Some 7,500 persons had left their

Truman Continues To Make Progress

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Harry S. Truman continues to show progress in recovering from an emergency operation but his doctor declined to estimate how much longer the 70-year-old former President will remain in the hospital.

Dr. Wallace Graham said last night that normally a post-operative patient would be in the hospital 10 days. Truman's gall bladder and appendix were removed last Sunday.

41 Chicks Hatched From Discarded Eggs

STANDISH, Maine (AP) — A batch of eggs discarded at the town dump hatched out 41 chicks, after baking in hot sunshine, caretaker Bert Chaplin reported.

Chaplin said last night the chicks appear to be flourishing despite their unceremonious entry into the world.

homes, mostly in a precautionary move in case the softened levees gave way.

But city officials said they thought the flooding could be kept in hand at all major trouble points.

CRIPPLED FLIGHT

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — The driver left an accident scene even though a front wheel had been knocked off his car. Police tracked him by marks left on the pavement by the dragging front spring and axle of his 1946 car. He pleaded guilty to leaving the scene of an accident and paid a $50 fine and costs.

Says McCarthy Won't Campaign In N. Mex.

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — Gov. Edwin Mechem, GOP candidate for U.S. senator, says if he has "anything to say about it" Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) won't campaign in New Mexico.

Mechem's declaration followed a Lincoln Day dinner statement yesterday from Republican National Chairman Leonard Hall that it will be up to each candidate to ask for McCarthy's help.

Mechem opposes Sen. Anderson (D-NM).

If Peanut-Scale War Fails In Guatemala Reds Will Win

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Guatemalan officials and the anti-Communist invaders have been fighting their war with their mouths, both sides making claims, neither acknowledging losses, and censorship blacking out the facts.

It has to be assumed those who engineered the attack did some planning, both as to timing and the size of the force necessary to win. The next few days will show whether the planning was shrewd or stupid.

So far the invaders have been disappointed if they were depending upon wholesale desertions to their side from the Guatemalan army. And there is no indication the peasants flocked to join them either.

If this invasion fails, the Communists not only will strengthen their grip on Guatemala but the United States will suffer a severe setback in its desire to see all Latin America free of communism.

Peanut Scale War
The war itself, but not its significance, is on a peanut scale. The invaders are reported to have perhaps 5,000 men—they may have more—backed by planes. Guatemala has an army of 6,000, backed by police.

The defending force may turn out to be larger than that if the 2,000 tons of arms, recently imported by Guatemala from Czechoslovakia, have been used to arm the peasants and they fight for the government.

There's a lesson for the United States in the outcome if the troops remain loyal to the present government, the peasants rally behind their Communist union leaders and the invasion is repulsed.

House Bills Block Pensions To Felons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Cretella (R-Conn.) of a House Civil Service Subcommittee has predicted his group would approve next week a bill to block federal pensions for Alger Hiss and other government employees convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude.

week sessions. The formal closing exercises were conducted in Trinity Lutheran Church before parents, families and friends who were shown specimens of the activities of the school and articles made by the handicraft department. On the last morning of the school, the annual closing picnic was conducted on the borough school campus with each youngster bringing a basket lunch and being treated by Bible school authorities to a beverage and ice cream.

The Subcommittee is considering 10 bills to deny civil service retirement benefits to government workers convicted of felonies, or to their widows and children.

Two of the bills are aimed specifically at Hiss, former State Department employee who was convicted of lying in denying he passed government secrets to a pre-World War II Communist spy ring. Hiss has had 14 years and 9 months of government service, entitling him to a government pension of $700 a year in 1966, when he becomes 66.

PROBE MURDER PLOT
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Police officials confirmed today they are looking into a reported plot to assassinate Prime Minister Nehru. But one police source said the confessed assassin is a known opium smuggler "and the whole thing may be a pipe dream." Reports from Indore, summer capital of the central Indian state of Madhya Bharat, said the smuggler had confessed the plot in a statement to a magistrate.

Dairymen Call June "Flush" Period; Cows Give Best Milk

By FRANK S. ZETTLER
Adams County Farm Agent

June is the month when folks in the dairy industry take time out to salute our good and long standing friend . . . the cow. And June is the fitting time to honor the cow, since that's when she usually gives the most and the richest milk . . . it's during what dairymen call the "flush" period.

Dairy cows have played an important part in the food supply of this country ever since it was settled. The first cows were brought to the Jamestown colony, which was ten years before the Pilgrims sailed.

During the Pilgrims' voyage to this country, their cows died. So when they landed, they had no milk. Many health authorities believe that it was this lack of milk . . . coupled with the hardships of their new settlement . . . that caused the high death rate. But the second ship that came to the Plymouth colony brought cows which lived, and which became the start of our present day dairy industry.

And this industry is one of the largest in the country. It's estimated that about one out of every fifteen Americans gains his livelihood from the Dairy industry. In Adams County there are over 330 commercial dairy farms returning over two million dollars to farmers. This is a sizable industry.

Shade, Water For Hogs

The wise farmer uses his pasture to the maximum. This is especially true for hog feeders. And many are using pasture.

But here are a few precautions for folks who will put hogs out on a temporary pasture during the hot summer days we'll have soon.

In many of these pastures there's no running water and no natural shade. Hogs suffer a great deal from heat since they don't perspire as human beings do.

Where trees or brush are not available to provide natural shade in the hog pasture, construct an artificial shade. Drive fence posts into the ground and build a framework on top of it, about four feet above the ground. Cover this framework with a rough material, such as straw or waste hay. Fasten it down so that wind won't blow it off. This waste material makes a cooler shade than boards or galvanized iron.

Fresh, Clear Water

Then make some provision to have fresh clear water before hogs. Water is one of the cheapest feeds which you can give a pig. And it helps the pig to digest the other feeds you give him. Water helps to keep down the body temperature . . . and that's very important with hogs in the middle of the summer.

One of the most sanitary places to raise young chickens is in open shade. This may be a thinned out woods, brush rows, or corn fields. And these shady areas are more valuable if they are adjacent to a good sod range of tender succulent grass.

In hot weather pullets will spread out comfortable in such shade. When the sunshine can reach each part of the ground surface at some time during the day to dry out the soil and droppings, there is less danger of such areas becoming filthy or a source of disease contamination as often is the case with dense overhead foliage or restricted shade.

"Feather Picking"

In the absence of shade, chicks may crowd into the range shelters. Not only are they then uncomfortable but due to close proximity, particularly if the shelter population is a little high, feather picking, cannibalism, and poor feathering frequently result.

Adult fowls are probably the greatest source of disease infection to growing stock. Adults may be resistant to certain diseases from which they have recovered but remain carriers.

The ranging program provides isolation, distance acting as a deterrent to disease transmission between the flocks. Some poultrymen sell all old fowls about a month or more before chicks are started. This practice, followed by thorough cleaning, may practically eliminate the dangers of disease transmission. Less housing equipment is required with this method and chicks may be early hatched so they mature for egg production during the period of rising egg prices. Brooding work is done and

Senators Back Plan For Mine Drainage

HARRISBURG (P)—Mines Secretary W. J. Clements said Wednesday Sens. Edward Martin and James H. Duff have thrown their support behind a 17 million dollar mine drainage plan to ease unemployment in the anthracite region.

"Both senators and several Pennsylvania congressmen are backing our program to seek federal aid for this project," Clements told a newsmen.

The mine secretary disclosed that Gov. John S. Fine is working on arrangements to set up an interview with President Eisenhower to seek federal money to finance the program.

The program is pinpointed in the direction of relieving hard coal operators from huge costs of pumping water to the surface. The Anthracite Mine Drainage Study Commission recently reported that 48 tons of water must be pumped for every ton of coal mined.

TROUBLE AHEAD FOR IKE'S PLAN ON FOREIGN AID BEING FORECAST

By RUSSELL BRINES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Republican congressmen today foresaw heavy sailing ahead for President Eisenhower's $3 1/2 billion dollar foreign aid program despite its approval virtually intact by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

The committee scissored only seven million dollars from administration requests in approving yesterday a $3,470,608,000 ceiling for global assistance during the year beginning July 1.

Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), a ranking member, termed the committee action a "vote of confidence in the President." He added this is the first time in his 16 years' congressional service that a committee has avoided heavy slashes in foreign aid.

The measure now goes to the House floor, probably Monday, and Vorys predicted that several members, including some committee members, would try to cut it. The Senate has not yet acted.

Appropriations will be voted later to carry out the authorized program. Rep. Ford (R-Mich.), a member of the Appropriations Committee, predicted that group would make "some cuts" when it starts considering the actual money bill in July.

The President, in a special message to Congress yesterday, called the program "essential" and said that, in the face of world tension, any cuts in it "would be unjustified and unsafe."

Some Items Okayed

A few hours later the House Foreign Policy Committee announced that it had approved untouched these major items:

1. Global military assistance totaling $1,778,300,000.
2. Military supporting aid to Southeast Asia and the Western Pacific, 945 million dollars. This includes authority to use anywhere in Southeast Asia 800 million earmarked for Indochina.
3. Global defense support, backing up the military buildup, $223,280,000.
4. Development assistance and

New Oxford

NEW OXFORD—Gerald, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. O'Brien, is assisting at intervals during the summer vacation at the "New Oxford Item" office. His elder brother, Jim, who was recently graduated from the local parochial school, expects to discontinue his duties at the office upon his entrance into Delone High School in the fall.

Mrs. Ruth Kopman Mumper, who is a regular employee of the "Item" office, spent the weekend at Ocean City, N. J., with her husband, Clair I. Mumper, local accountant.

Mrs. Ambrose P. Wagner, who is spending the summer at her Dicks Dam cottage, has as a guest her grandson, Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Wagner, York. The Bernard Wagner family were all guests for a day at the cottage recently. Mrs. Wagner's daughter, Miss Mary Wagner, is on a trip to Canada with Hanover friends.

point four aid to underdeveloped areas, 224 million, including 85 million for India.

5. Korean rehabilitation, $241,300,000, including the American share of United Nations programs.

The rest of the authorized funds would be spent on various types of international relief programs.

The committee sliced 7 1/2 million dollars from defense support funds for Europe, but added $500,000 to the U.N. emergency relief total. Last year the group cut Eisenhower's first aid budget by 750 million dollars before sending it to the House.

FARM CALENDAR

Cultivate Carefully—Cultivation is the best weed control in the garden, believes James Dutt, Penn State extension vegetable specialist, but he says to use judgment. While it is desirable to keep the surface soil loose, little is gained by hoeing or cultivating oftener than necessary to control the weeds.

Pave Barnyards—Farmers are enthusiastic about their paved barnyards or feedlots, according to Charles Burruss, Penn State extension agricultural engineer. A paved surface saves time and work every time the yard is cleaned. Cattle stay healthier, make better gains, stay cleaner, and track less dirt into the barn.

Barbecue Chicken—To help in planning a chicken barbecue for any sized group of people, the Pennsylvania State Poultry Federation asked Paul Margolf and Carl Dossin, poultry specialists of the Pennsylvania State University, to write a leaflet giving specific directions. You can get this leaflet from your county agent.

Control Fires—Almost all farm fires can be prevented but Joseph McCurdy, Penn State extension agricultural engineer, says that farmers, often far removed from organized fire protection, must look to their own defenses to control and hold a fire in check when it occurs.

Trench Silos Cheap—Formerly a temporary way of storing silage, the trench silo is becoming a permanent structure. Burton Horne, Penn State extension agricultural engineer, believes that low cost of construction is a factor in many trench silos being used. Costs range from $1.50 to $3 per ton of silage, depending on materials used.

Feed For Hogs—It takes about 450 pounds of grain and supplement to produce 100 pounds of pork, says Dwight Younkun, Penn State extension livestock specialist. Feed accounts for about 80 cents of every dollar of costs in raising pigs. Any efficient practice that reduces feed costs will increase profits.

Plant Sweet Corn—If you have a choice of soil for sweet corn, plant it in a well-drained fertile field which has a good supply of organic matter, reminds James O. Dutt, Penn State extension vegetable specialist. Medium loam or sandy loam soils, with manure or clover soil plowed down, have given the best results.

Prune The Shrubs—Spring-flowering shrubs should be pruned as soon as blooming is finished, says A. O. Rasmussen, Penn State extension ornamental horticulturist. Remove one-third to one-half of the top growth, maintaining the plant's natural symmetry.

Cultivate Berries—Cultivation is a job that continues until the raspberry crop is harvested. Carl Bitner, Penn State extension fruit specialist, reminds that cultivation must be frequent and thorough enough to kill the weeds and grass.

Grow Snap Beans—When planting of snap beans is timed right, you can have a new crop ready for harvest every few weeks, explains

JUSTICE AND MERCY
WAYNESBORO, Va. (AP)—Kenneth R. Givens, a juror, was listening to the evidence in a case in corporation court, when there was an urgent message for him. There was an emergency and Givens was the only citizen the hospital knew who had a needed type of blood. Judge C. G. Quisenberry recessed court an hour at Givens request. When he returned the jurors made him foreman.

Washington News Letter

By Jane Eads

WASHINGTON (AP)—Because there was no place for a queen to powder her royal nose when she visited headquarters of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the new Federation president, Mrs. Theodore S. Chapman, has a beautiful new apartment at her disposal.

The world's largest organization of women has headquarters in a handsome remodeled residence on tree-shaded N Street Northwest. There are attractive reception rooms for teas and parties, offices and on the upper floors a few bedrooms.

When Queen Juliana of the Netherlands visited this country in late 1952 she was entertained at tea by the General Federation. Her majesty had received Mrs. Hiram Houghton, Red Oak, Ia., then Federation president, and other officers on a trip abroad.

That afternoon the clubhouse was decorated with chrysanthemums and jack-o'-lanterns. The silver tea urns glistened. Everything was going along nicely.

The queen was rushing here and there, and photographers were constantly snapping her picture. Woman-like, she wanted to pretty-up. There was some scurrying around by club officers, embarrassed that there was no attractive guest suite.

Afterward it was decided to remedy that — another queen might come to call—and a suite of bedroom, bath-dressing room, sitting room and tiny buffet was built into which no president of 11 million women need be other than proud to usher royalty.

Member Clubs

The business of the General Federation, which has 800,000 member clubs and affiliated clubs in this country and a sizable number overseas, requires the president to be frequently at its Washington headquarters. It is more convenient for her if she can stay in the building.

Mrs. Oscar Ahlgren, Whiting, Ind., the immediate past president, got to occupy the "royal suite" the last months of her two-year term. Its air conditioner will be turned on when Mrs. Chapman, of Jerseyville, Ill., arrives this week end.

The suite is decorated predominately in pink and green. The bath room is peach. The furniture in the bedroom is white french provincial, and that in the living room is fruitwood. There is a television set. In the buffet are an electric hot plate on which the president can make some coffee with which to keep awake nights as she plans her busy two years ahead, and a little refrigerator in which to keep the cream.

Mrs. Chapman is a widow with no children. Back home in Illinois she operates a 270-acre grain farm.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fifty people sat down here the other day to a lunch that was put together on some of Virginia's very old recipes.

They were opening the Washington Antiques Fair run by Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Nuttall, who come from the "Eastern Shore" of Maryland. Mrs. Nuttall dug up the recipes.

The menu listed: "regent's punch, Southern frosted fruit shrub, Williamsburg fried chicken, asparagus hollandaise, Williamsburg baked tomatoes and queen of puddings."

Fruit "shrub" is just a fruit cup chilled with a sherbet. The fried chicken, asparagus and baked tomato recipes are about the same as ones we use today. But the punch and the pudding are fun to do.

Punch Recipe

Here's the punch recipe, from "The Williamsburg Art of Cookery":

"To one pint of strong black tea add rind of four lemons cut very thin. Add two pounds of sugar, juice of six lemons, juice of six oranges, one pint of French brandy, one pint of rum and two quarts of champagne."

And here's the Queen of Puddings, which made a big hit but takes a little work:

"Pour one quart of milk over two cups of fine, dry bread crumbs. Beat four egg yolks. Add half a cup of sugar. Combine with half a cup of butter, creamed with one cup of sugar. Add a spoonful of flavoring. (Can be lemon, vanilla, almond.)

"Pour into a baking dish and bake in a moderate oven until set. Spread top with a layer of fresh berries or preserve. Strew (correct) well with sugar. Spread over top light meringue made by whipping four egg whites with two tablespoons of powdered sugar. Return to moderate oven until the meringue is lightly brown."

M-m-m, good. Them Southerners!

ANGOSTURA SAUCE

Chocolate Ice Cream with Ingredients: $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar, tablespoon flour, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt, 2 eggs (separated), 1 cup scalded milk, 1 to 2 teaspoons aromatic bitters, chocolate ice cream.

Method: Mix sugar, flour and salt thoroughly in top of double boiler. Beat eggs slightly and add. Stir in milk gradually; cook and stir constantly over hot (not boiling) water until sauce thickens slightly. Remove from heat. Stir in bitters. Beat egg whites until stiff and slowly fold hot custard into whites. Chill.

ICE CREAM IS SUMMER DISH

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor Make them as homey or chic as you like, depending on the occasion, but keep ice-cream desserts in mind for refreshing and sweet endings to summer meals.

In the homey category, we would list the wonderful and typically American pies, cobblers, pandowdies, biscuit rolls and dumplings desserts made from seasonal fruits and served a la mode. With fillings of blueberries, strawberries, raspberries, cherries, apples, peaches, apricots, plums or pears, these old-fashioned fragrant treats are out-of-this-world when brought to the table warm from the oven and topped with ice cream. But we beg you to choose an appropriate flavor of ice cream for them. Vanilla, pecan or burnt almond go with any of these fruits.

Chichi Group

In the chichi group, that glamorous concoction—Baked Alaska—comes first. In cold weather Baked Alaska is fine served with chocolate sauce, but in summer it needs a fresh fruit sauce. To make the Alaska, get yourself a sponge layer cake and enough ice cream to cover the top. When you are ready to serve, arrange the solidly frozen ice cream over the cake, then cover the whole thing with meringue. Get your meringue ready first, following standard directions to beat in the sugar thoroughly. Then the last trick: put the Alaska in a very hot oven for only a few minutes—just long enough for the meringue peaks to get a beautiful golden color. Serve at once with your fruit sauce to willing eaters.

"One That Got Away" Victim Of Hungry Cat

MAUCH CHUNG, Pa. (AP)—This is 11-year-old Dale Stauffer's fish story:

Dale battled a large fish for quite a few minutes at a nearby stream and finally beached it. Before he had a chance to measure the fish a cat grabbed it and ran away with it.

The Rev. Samuel F. Stauffer, a Lutheran minister and Dale's father, said he saw the whole thing. He even helped Dale chase the cat. The fish was not recovered.

Cops Want No Fullies On 19,000-Man Force

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's largest city wants no "bullies" on its 19,000-man police force. Police Commissioner Francis W. H. Adams warned 200 trainees against assuming a "chesty" or "tough guy" attitude.

Citizens, he said, will "comply readily with your firm and good-natured directors" but "as readily resent arbitrary and discourteous actions."

Cook & lives' liver in butter in a skillet; sprinkle with chopped parsley and chives and serve with mashed potatoes and fresh green peas for a summer supper.

Wife Dislikes Hubby's Job As A Male Nurse

SEATTLE (AP)—Joseph E. Lorenz is treasurer of the Washington State Nurses' Assn., and at convention time an objection to his holding the purse string job was voiced by only one member. It was Mrs. Lorenz.

The trouble, she said, is that "he's always surrounded by women."

Lorenz is a teaching supervisor of psychiatric nursing at a veteran's hospital.

Women Drivers Ask Cops To Reset Pole

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Police Sgt. Everett T. Fredin, on desk duty, received a telephone call from a woman. The utility pole in front of her house, she said, was too close to her driveway. Could the pole be moved, please?

"My daughter and I have just learned to drive," she explained, "and I just know that I'm going to hit that pole."

ALLITERATIVE FAMILY

CASHIERS, N.C. (AP)—The John Smiths lean toward L.

Their eight daughters' names are: Lola, Lele, Lena, Lorene, Lucille, Lucy, Laura and Lula.

Their grandchildren are named: Lewis, Leonard, Lloyd, Lindsey and Loyal.

POTATO KING OWNS NO LAND

TWIN FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Joe Marshall, the "Idaho potato king," doesn't own a single acre of land, yet he ships thousands of choice potatoes every year.

Marshall deeded his land to his children some 14 years ago and now manages a number of farms. His name on potato sacks is well known in the market.

He raised his first potatoes in 1908. The product wasn't too good. Through careful selection of seed, he developed the familiar oval russet potato marketed today. But he didn't really get started in the potato business until after a two-year stay in Utah from 1919 to 1921 when an irrigation contracting job misfired.

"I returned to Twin Falls just $36,000 worse than broke," he says.

He started farming earnest. It was in 1922, 1923 and 1924 that he started acquiring the potato king title.

There's no mystery about growing choice spuds. Marshall insists, "All it takes is good seed, good land and proper care."

Marshall is 80 but still active. For an operation the size of his, you'd expect a fair sized office staff, but his office is one small filing cabinet in his home and the pockets of his overalls.

SAY SENATE OK ON TRADE PLAN MAY BE FATAL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican Senate leaders passed word today that adoption of a Democratic-sponsored, broadened extension of the Reciprocal Trade Act probably would kill the 20-year program.

Majority Leader Knowland of California and Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) of the tariff-handling Finance Committee, it was learned, were using this argument to try to hold votes in line for a simple one-year extension bill already passed by the House.

They argued that a three-year extension with new powers for the President to cut tariffs, as originally requested by President Eisenhower and now provided for in the Democrats' substitute, would be like waving a red flag in the face of key House Republicans who favor higher tariffs.

Leaders Reluctant

Many House GOP leaders, such as Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-N.Y.), were reluctant to go along even with a one-year extension without new restrictions on imports. Reed heads the Ways and Means Committee which has authority over tariff legislation in the House.

After his three-year proposal ran into difficulties there, Eisenhower last month let it be known he would go along with a one-year extension now but said he was not dropping his interest in the broader

Russia's Vaunted Chess Team Wins

NEW YORK (AP)—Russia's vaunted chess team, as expected, has conquered the best players America could muster.

The Russians clinched their victory last night in the fourth and final round of a 32-game tournament that stretched over eight days.

The score stood at 18½ to 9½ for the visitors, playing here for the first time. Four more games will be completed today, but they can't change the result.

program. He said passage of the one-year extension would give Congress opportunity to study his plan further.

Knowland and Millikin contend the House might well refuse a conference and let the law die if the Senate passes a broadened extension measure.

However, both Senators said they were confident the proposed substitute, offered by 22 Democrats and independent Sen. Morse of Oregon, would be beaten.

The vote on the substitute is expected today, and possibly final passage of the bill, the Senate last night having adopted an agreement to limit debate.

Many fresh fruits taste delicious served with frozen cream. To prepare the cream, beat it until it begins to thicken, then gradually beat in sugar to taste and vanilla until stiff. Place in freezing compartment of refrigerator until firm. Try this on a combination of pineapple, apricots, strawberries or raspberries and bananas.

North Koreans Used Fantastic Treatments For Prisoners Of War, U.S. Army Doctor Recalls

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The North Koreans had some fantastic medical treatments for their prisoners of war, a U.S. Army doctor reported today.

Prisoners complaining of vitamin deficiencies were given bile from the gall bladders of butchered pigs, Maj. Alexander M. Boysen, of the Brooke Army Medical Center, Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., told the American Medical Assn.

This treatment did a good job of keeping men away from sick call.

Used Vibrating Needles

For the treatment of pain a Chinese doctor used a series of short needles attached to spring vibrators. The needles were put into the skin around the painful area and made to vibrate.

"As you might suspect," Maj. Boysen said, "some cases of back pain and headache were cured by this treatment."

Another Chinese doctor decided all complaints of eye trouble were caused by glaucoma, a condition in which the fluid pressure in the eyeball increases. The Chinese medic treated all eye patients with salt water injections under the eyelid, the medical officer reported.

Ate Balled Weeds

In the spring of 1953 food became so scarce that prisoners ate balled weeds, Boysen reported.

Frequently the only medicines available were cough tablets for pneumonia and charcoal tablets for dysentery. Incisions for drainage of abscesses were made without anesthesia and sometimes with improvised instruments, such as the metal arch support from a combat boot.

Choice Of Treatments

Virtually all deaths in the Communist war prison camps were caused directly or indirectly by starvation, exposure and harassment, Boysen said.

The average Chinese doctor would treat only the chief complaint of a prisoner, said the officer.

A patient suffering from both night blindness and diarrhea had to choose one of the two for treatment.

Come in for a Test Drive!

We're out to set the highest sales record in our car history. You'll find us mighty, mighty easy to deal with

You are in for savings because we are out for a sales record. It just stands to reason: Offering the best car value in town isn't enough! We've got to give you better trade-in allowances... better deals than anyone else in town. And that's exactly what we will do. Never before and, probably, never again will you find it so easy to buy such a fine car!

See why Ford is

WORTH MORE WHEN YOU BUY IT WORTH MORE WHEN YOU SELL IT

Here's the best part: You're getting a record high in value for a record low in cost.

Ford is the only car in the low-price field to offer the "Go" of a V-8 engine. And what a V-8! It's the new 130-h.p. Y-block V-8, the industry's most modern power-plant. Rigid, deep-block build gives you quiet, smooth performance. Low-friction design, turbo-wedge combustion chambers give you the most power for the least gas!

Or, if you like "Sixes," Ford offers the industry's most modern—the new 115-h.p. I-block Six. It has most of the same advances as the "Y"—but you can have it for even less money.

All Fords also give you the smooth ride... the easy handling of new Ball-Joint Front Suspension. And only Ford in the low-price field has it.

Then, too, Ford is the style leader. No matter who rides with you—they'll be impressed by Ford's fine-car interiors. No matter where you park your Ford, people will know that you own the style leader.

These things make Ford worth more when you buy it. They also make Ford the car that keeps its value better than any car in its field—bar none. Ford is your wisest investment... and now's your wisest time to buy.
